1.—THAT the Society shall be called the RECORD SOCIETY, and shall have for its object the transcribing and publishing of Original Documents relating to the counties of Lancaster and Chester.

2.—That the affairs of the Society shall be governed by a Council, consisting of a President and twelve Members, the former of whom shall be annually elected by the Council.

3.—That three Members of the Council shall form a quorum.

4.—That the subscription of Members of the Society shall be £1. 1s. per annum, which shall entitle them to the publications for the year; but any Member whose subscription shall be two years in arrear shall thereupon be removed from the Society, and shall not be re-admitted until all arrears have been paid. The number of Members is limited to 350.

5.—That the subscriptions shall be due on the 30th of June in each year, and that no work shall be issued to any Member whose subscription is in arrear.

6.—That an Annual Meeting of the Society shall be held in the month of July, of which due notice shall be sent to all the Members. At this meeting a Report of the work of the Society, with a Statement of the Income and Expenditure, shall be presented. These shall be annually published, together with a List of Members and the Rules of the Society.

7.—That so long as the funds of the Society permit, two volumes at least shall be issued to the Members in each year.

8.—That no copies of the publications of the Society shall be sold to non-members, except at an increased price to be fixed by the Council.

9.—That no payment shall be made to any person for editing any work for the Society, but that the Editor of each volume shall be entitled to twenty copies of the work so edited by him.

10.—That the Treasurer's accounts shall be audited by two Members of the Society, who shall be elected at the Annual Meeting.

11.—No alteration shall be made in any of the above Rules except at the Annual General Meeting. Notice of any proposed alterations must be sent to the Hon. Secretary a month before such General Meeting.

12.—That a Meeting of the Council of the Society shall be called by the Hon. Secretary at least once in every three months.

The Annual Subscription of £1. 1s., entitling the Members to all the Volumes issued for that year, may be paid to the Hon. Treasurer, or to the credit of the Society at their Bankers, the Manchester and Liverpool District Banking Company, Limited, at any of their branches.

Report for the Year 1887-8.

Read at the Annual Meeting, held in the Audit Room of the Chetham Hospital, Manchester, October 31st, 1888.

27.50 (300000)
THE Council have much pleasure in stating that since the last Annual Meeting three volumes have been delivered to the Members,—Vol. XIV., Annales Cestrienses; Vol. XV., Index to the Wills, now preserved at Chester, between the years 1660 and 1680; and Vol. XVI., Lancashire Inquisitions, Stuart Period, Part II., 1614 to 1622. Of these volumes a full account appeared in the Report of the Society read on October 6th last year, so that it is needless to further allude to them here.

Genealogical
The two volumes for the year 1887-88 are both printed, and will be in the hands of the members next month. Vol. XVII. is Lancashire Inquisitions, Stuart Period, Vol. III., 1622 to 1625; and Vol. XVIII. is the Index to the Wills now preserved at Chester 1681 to 1700. The former of these completes the Lancashire Inquisitions for the reign of James I., an important period embracing the early part of the seventeenth century. The first portion, which appeared so far back as Vol. III. of the Society's series, included all the Inquisitions which were taken between the first and the eleventh year of that king's reign, 1603 to 1613; the second portion, forming Vol. XVI. of the Society's series, included the years 1614 to 1621; and in the present volume those taken from 1622 to 1625 will be found. This is the first time that any attempt has ever been made to print the entire series of Inquisitions, belonging to any particular county for any special period, and the value of the work is very great. No less than 567 documents, all written in Latin, and referring to all classes of persons,—knights, esquires, clergy, gentry, and yeomen,—have been examined, and full English abstracts of them printed. These three volumes have yielded much valuable information concerning the history of many Lancashire families and places at the beginning of the seventeenth century, and they have been much used by writers of local and family history. The importance of the information which they contain cannot be over-estimated, as they are, with few exceptions, what are known as Inquisitions post mortem, or the returns taken before a jury, after the deaths of those who held, or were supposed to hold, their lands directly from the king.

Original documents, such as family and marriage settlements, wills, &c., were produced and shown to the jury, and are frequently quoted at length in these Inquisitions. At the conclusion of the inquiry the jurors certified who was the next heir to the deceased, and his or her age at the time. These volumes have been edited by Mr. J. Paul Rylands, who has printed at the end of this volume abstracts of a few Inquisitions belonging to the reign of James I., which are not now to be found in the Public Record Office. There is a full Index of both persons and places for Vols. XVI. and XVII. at the end of Vol. XVII.

Volume XVIII., the Index to the Wills and Inventories now preserved at Chester from 1681 to 1700, has, like the previous Lists of Wills at Chester, been edited by Mr. J. P. Earwaker. By the publication of this volume the Council have now placed in the hands of the members of the Society the complete list of all the wills relating to Lancashire and Cheshire known to be preserved at Chester from the earliest date, 1545, to the year 1700, as well as those which were proved in London between the years 1650 and 1660, when the diocesan Courts of Probate were closed. The total number of wills calendared in the four volumes now printed, embracing the periods 1545 to 1620, 1621 to 1650, 1660 to 1680, and 1681 to 1700, cannot be far short of 70,000! As was stated in the last Report, the Council hope to continue the printing of these lists from time to time down to the year 1780, or possibly 1800. As the names are arranged in strictly alphabetical order, it is now possible for any one to ascertain, with little or no trouble, what wills there are belonging to any particular Lancashire or Cheshire family, down to the year 1700, and this too without the necessity or expense of a journey to Chester and a special search through each year's Index in the Probate Registry there. It is, therefore, not surprising that these volumes have been the most frequently consulted of any printed by the Society, and that the example which the Record Society has set with regard to the wills at Chester has been, and is being, followed by other Societies in other parts of England.

The following is the complete list of the Society's publications up to the present time:—

The last two volumes will be issued next month.

Two volumes have been issued in each year, except on two occasions, when a single volume of more than average thickness was substituted for the two volumes.

In previous Reports attention has been directed to the various volumes which the Council hope to be able to issue in future years. Of these, perhaps the most important is the Index to the Raines MSS., now in the Chetham Library, Manchester, and to the Piccope, Palmer, Barritt, and other local MSS. there, which will form the first of a series of volumes, describing the contents of the various MSS. relating to Lancashire and Cheshire, now preserved in the different public libraries in the two counties. Some progress has been made with this volume, about half of the Raines MSS. having been examined, and it is hoped that the book may be sent to press some time next year.

The Royalist Composition Papers for Lancashire, of which a full account was given in the Report for last year, will shortly be taken in hand by the Rev. J. H. Stanning, M.A., who has kindly consented to edit them, and the first volume will, it is hoped, appear next year. They will be arranged in alphabetical order, so that the many scattered documents may be brought together under the name of the persons to whom they relate. As already stated, these Royalist Composition papers, relating as they do to a period (1644 to 1652) of very great public interest, show what tyrannical and arbitrary means were employed by those in authority in confiscating the property of the Royalists, and the hardships the latter had to undergo. They will make singularly valuable volumes for the history of Lancashire, and will supply a mass of information entirely new, the very existence of which, up to a few years ago, was unsuspected.

The Council regret that Mr. James Hall's promised edition of Malbon's Diary of the Civil War in Cheshire is not yet ready for the press, but they hope he will be able to devote some time to it during the forthcoming winter. Mr. J. A. C. Vincent's Report on the Lancashire Lay Subsidy Rolls is in the printer's hands, and, from the specimens of the work submitted to the Council, a volume containing much original information may be looked for.

The important Court Rolls of the great Honor of Clitheroe, co. Lancaster, have during the past few years been carefully examined by two members of the Society, Mr. A. J. Robinson, Clitheroe Castle, and Mr. W. Ecroyd, of Burnley, who have kindly agreed to allow the results of their labours to be printed by this Society. The great quantity of material, and the trouble of making such selections as will show the true value of these ancient Rolls, are difficulties which the Council trust these gentlemen will be able to overcome, so that their account of them, with copious extracts from the Rolls, may appear at no distant date.

As stated in the last Report, the Council have availed themselves of Sir James Hannen's permission, and have had the various Indices to the Wills at Chester, now in use at the Probate Registry there, transcribed down to the year 1760. They are, therefore, now in a position to print further volumes of these valuable lists of wills, divided into periods of twenty years, whenever an opportunity offers.

So much interest has been excited by the recent publication of the London Marriage Licences, as copied by the late Col. Chester, that the Council think that some steps should at once be taken to obtain permission to print the early marriage licences preserved at Chester, which begin in 1608. These marriage licences relate to both Lancashire and Cheshire, and contain information of great genealogical value, which well deserves to be placed on permanent record. They are also of value in supplying the names of the local clergy, who were licensed to celebrate these marriages. In addition to the London Marriage Licences above referred to it may interest the members to know that a volume of Lincoln Marriage Licences, 1598 to 1628, has appeared this year, and that another volume is now in the press.

In the last Report attention was directed to the fact that the number of the members of the Society was much below the 350 names to which the Society is limited. In order to bring the Society to the notice of persons likely to become members, and in particular to the chief Libraries in the United States and elsewhere, circulars were drawn up by the Hon. Secretary, and have been extensively circulated. The results so far have been very gratifying, and the Council have the pleasure of announcing that since the last Annual Meeting thirty-four persons have joined the Society, and, what is perhaps more important still, the funds of the Society have been enriched, not only by the thirty-four guineas paid by them, but also to the extent of £87 by the sale of back volumes to these new and other members. Whilst congratulating the Society on this accession, the Council express a hope that the present members will endeavour to induce their friends to join a Society which has done, and is doing, such good work for the past history of Lancashire and Cheshire. Many of the members have done this in the past year with very satisfactory results, for which the Council sincerely thank them.

During the past year the Society has suffered a serious loss by the death of Mr. J. E. Bailey, F.S.A., who was a member of the Society from its commencement, and of the Council since 1882.

☞ The Council must again refer to Rule 5, under which no volume can be delivered to any member whose subscription is in arrear.

The Balance-sheet, showing the receipts and expenditure of the Society for the year 1887-8, will be found on the next page.

THIS volume completes the series of English abstracts of those Lancashire Inquisitions, taken during the reign of King James I., which are now extant in the Public Record Office ; and in the Appendix will be found abstracts of a few additional Inquisitions belonging to the same period, from the originals now remaining among the muniments of the Corporation of Manchester, which have been contributed by Mr. EARWAKER.

The whole of the abstracts, from the documents preserved in the Public Record Office, which are included in the following pages, have been compared, as they passed through the press, with the original Inquisitions, by Miss EMMA M. WALFORD ; a lady who has performed her duties in connexion with the present and the preceding volume with great care.

The thanks of the Society are due to Mr. WALFORD D. SELBY, of the Public Record Office, for valuable advice and assistance in the preparation of these abstracts.

Octave of St. Michael, 13 James [1615], between Richard Mollineux, Knt. and Bart., Peter Leigh, Knt., and Roger Doznes, Esq., plaintiffs, and the said Thomas Gerrard (named in the writ), deforciant, of all the premises in the county of Derby by the names of the manors of Etwall, Ash, and Hardwicke, and 60 messuages, 20 cottages, 10 tofts, 1 wind-mill, 80 gardens, 80 orchards, 1000 acres of land, 500 acres of meadow, 1000 acres of pasture, 40 acres of wood, 2000 acres of furze and heath, and 40s. rent, in Etwall, Ash, and Hardwicke; also the Rectory of Etwall; also all tithes of sheaves and grain yearly growing in Etwall, Burneston and Hardwicke; also the Advowson of the Vicarage of the Church of Etwall, as by certain transcripts of the said Fines, shown to the Jurors in evidence upon the taking of this Inquisition, more fully appears.

The said Fines were levied to the uses following:—

As to all the manors, lands, and other the premises in the county of Lancaster, to the use of the said Thomas Gerrard (named in the writ) for life, without impeachment of waste, with remainders to the use of Thomas Gerrard, his son, for life; and in default to the use of the first-born and other sons of Thomas (the son) by Frances, his wife; and in default to the use of the first-born and other sons of Thomas (the son); and in default to the use of John Gerrard, second son of Thomas (the father), for life; and in default to the use of the first-born and other sons of John successively in tail male; and in default to the use of the right heirs of Lady Elizabeth Gerrard (deceased), mother of Thomas Gerrard, Knt. (named in the writ).

As to all the manors, lands, tenements, and other the premises in the county of Lancaster [sic, for Derby, Stafford, &c. ?], to the use of Thomas Gerrard (the father) for life, with remainders to the use of Thomas Gerrard (the son) for life; and for default to the use of the first-born and other sons of Thomas (the son) by Frances his wife; and for default to the use of the first-born and other sons of Thomas (the son); and for default to the use of John Gerrard and his heirs male; and for default to the first-born and other sons of Thomas (the father) afterwards begotten; and for default to the use of Thomas, Lord Gerrard; and for default to the use of Miles Gerrard, of Ince; and for default to the use of Thomas Gerrard, of Rainchill, gentleman; and for default to the use of John Gerrard (younger brother of the last-named Thomas); and for default to the use of Thomas Gerrard, of Newhall, and their heirs successively in tail male; and, lastly, to the use of the right heirs of Thomas Gerrard (the father, named in the writ) for ever, as by transcripts of the said Fines, and by certain Indentures, one dated 27 Nov., 5 James [1607], and the other dated 15 Jan., 10 James [1612-13], shown to the Jurors, appears. By virtue whereof, and by force of the Statute of Uses, the said Thomas Gerrard (named in the writ) was seised of all the premises in Lancashire and Derbyshire for life, without impeachment of waste, with remainders as aforesaid, and, so seised, he died at Westminster, 16 Feb., 18 James [1620-21].

The capital messuage called "le Bryne," and the manor of Ashton in Makerfield, and all other the premises in Bryne and Ashton are held of Richard Fleetwood, Knt. and Bart., in free socage, viz. by fealty only, and are worth per ann. (clear) £20. The manor of Windle, and all other the premises in Windle are held of Peter Leigh, Knt., by knight's service, but by what part of a knight's fee the Jurors know not, and they are worth per ann. (clear) £3. The premises in Pemberton are held of the lords of Pemberton in free and common socage, viz. by fealty only, and are worth per ann. (clear) 12*d*. The premises in Lancaster are held of the King in free burgage, and are worth per ann. (clear) 4*d*. The premises in Prescott are held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, by knight's service, but by what part of a knight's fee the Jurors know not, and they are worth per ann. (clear) 12*d*. The manor and rectory of Etwall and all other the premises in Etwall are held of the King in capite by knight's service, but by what part of a knight's fee the Jurors know not, and they are worth per ann. (clear) £10. Of whom or by what service the manor of Hardwick, and other the premises in Hardwick are held, the Jurors know not, and they are worth per ann. (clear) 4*s*. The tenements in Derby are held of the Borough of Derby in free and common socage, and are worth per ann. (clear) 4*d*. The tenements in Burton-on-Trent are held of the Borough of Burton in free and common socage, and are worth per ann. (clear) 4*d*. The 40 acres of land in Ash are held of the King in capite by knight's service, but by what part of a knight's fee the Jurors know not, and they are worth per ann. (clear) 5*s*.

Thomas Gerrard, Knt. and Bart., is the son and next heir of Thomas Gerrard (named in the writ), and was aged at the time of his father's death 36 years and more; he has taken the issues and profits of all the manors and other the premises in Lancashire, Derbyshire, and Staffordshire, from that time up to the day of taking this Inquisition.

Richard Ward, of Mellor, Gentleman.

William Gerrard, of Brynhill, Gentleman.

Inquisition taken at Chorley, 18 Sept., 20 James [1622], before Edward Rigby, Esq., Escheator, after the death of William Gerrard, late of Brinhill,<sup>2</sup> gentleman, by the oath of Hugh Adlington and William Chorley, Esqs., Thurstan Standishe, Edward Swansey, William Tootell, Hugh Tootell, Richard Prescott, Thurstan Maudesley, Thomas Wasley, John Withnell, George Browne, Richard Haidocke, Roger Haidocke, Peter Blackhurst, Hugh Dicconson, John Brindle, Gilbert Rigby, Hugh Nightgall, William Hauckshead, and Alexander Liptrott, gentlemen, who say that William Gerrard, long before his death, was seised in fee of the reversion of 6 acres of land, meadow and pasture, in Walton in le dale,<sup>3</sup> expectant upon the term of 100 years next following 14 Sept., 6 James [1608], if one Ellen Walmsley, wife of Richard Walmsley, Evan Gerrard, and James Gerrard, or any of them, should so long live, which said Ellen, Evan, and James still survive. By virtue of which term one Gerrard Walmsley is possessed of the said 6 acres of land, meadow and pasture, for the term aforesaid.

William Gerrard was likewise seised in fee and right of the reversion of 7 acres of land, meadow and pasture, in Walton in le Dale, expectant upon the term of 7 years now following. By virtue whereof one George Euxton is now possessed of the said 7 acres. Also in like manner of the reversion of 5 acres of land, meadow and pasture, in Brinhill, expectant upon the term of 60 years from 2 Feb., 10 James [1612-13], by virtue whereof Gerrard and Jenett<sup>1</sup> Walmisley are, and at the time of the death of the said William Gerrard were, possessed of the said 5 acres of land. Also in like manner of 1½ acres of land in Whittle in le Woodes.<sup>2</sup>

So seised, by deed dated 20 March, 19 James [1621-2], he enfeofed thereof one Gerrard Walmisley, to hold to him and his heirs to such uses as he the said William Gerrard by his will should express.

The said William Gerrard afterwards made his will, dated 22 March, 19 James [1621-2], describing himself as "William Gerrard, of Radborne, in Brinhill, in the County of Lanc., Drouier." He desired to be buried within the parish church of Brinhill [Brindle], in the place or near where his father and ancestors lay. He gave and bequeathed unto his brother, John Gerrard, 10s. in gold. To his sister, Margaret Wright, late wife of John Wright, of Euxton, deceased, 10s. in gold. To every child that he was uncle unto, 3s. 4d. apiece. To every child that he was godfather unto, 12d. To 20 of the poorest houses, being inhabitants in Brinhill, 40s., to be divided amongst them at the discretion of his Executors. To the repairing of the parish church of Brinhill, 10s. To the repairing of the high way, betwixt Tasker's house and James Catterall's, in Brinhill, 10s. To every child that he was grandfather unto £3, who should be living at his death (except Gerrard Walmisley and the heir of Richard Walmisley, of Showley, in the county of Lancaster, gentleman, his (testator's) son in law). To Richard Walmisley, his son in law, "one siluer tuñe wth a cou<sup>l</sup> pcell gilt to remaine vnto hime duringe the terme of his liffe and then vnto heires as an heire lowme for ever." To Ellen Walmisley his daughter, wife of the said Richard Walmisley, 20s. To Richard Osbaldeston, of Showley, gentleman, 3s. 4d. And the testator declared that whereas he had by Indenture, dated 20 March, 1621-2, enfeofed unto the said Gerrard Walmisley, his heirs and assigns, all those his fee simple lands, &c. in Brinhill, Walton in le dale, and Whittle in the Woodes, to such uses as he should by his will declare, he thereby declared and gave to the use of the said Gerrard

And the testator mentioned that there were two tithe barns assigned to him in trust by Peter Burscough, in Whittle and Curden. All the residue of his goods remaining after the payment of his legacies and funeral expenses, and all leases "and other goods of what nature or kinde soe<sup>r</sup>," he gave and bequeathed unto the said Gerrard Walmisley and to Jenett, his (the testator's) wife, equally between them. And he desired the said Richard Osbaldeston, his worshipful good friend, to be supervisor of that his will. And he made the said Richard Walmisley, his son in law, and Jenett, his (the testator's) wife, the executors of his will. And, after revoking all wills theretofore made by him, he duly executed his said will. As by the aforesaid deed and will, shown to the Jurors in evidence, appears.

The lands and tenements in Walton le dale are held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, by knight's service, viz. by the 200th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann. nothing during the several terms aforesaid. The lands and tenements in Brinhill are held of the Most Noble William, Earl of Devonshire, in free and common socage by fealty and rent, and are worth per ann. nothing during the terms aforesaid. The lands and tenements in Whittle in le woodes are held of the lords of Whittle in le woodes, viz. of James Anderton, and lately of Alexander Standish (deceased), and now of Thomas Standish, his son, Esqs., in free and common socage by fealty and rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 2s.

William Gerrard died, being so seised, 24 March last past [1621-22]; Ellen Walmisley is his daughter and heir, and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 26 years and more; Jenett, late his wife, still survives at Brinhill.

Francis Pendleton, Gentleman.

Vol. xxiii.
No. 59.
1 Oct.

Inquisition taken at Manchester, 1 Oct., 20 James [1622], before Edward Rigby, Esq., Escheator, after the death of Francis Pendleton, gentleman, by the oath of George Tippin[g] of Manchester, John Nuttall of Blackely, Thomas Irelome of Barton, Adam Jepson of Moston, Edmund Platt, of Platt, John Barlowe of Lostocke, John Hulton of Synderland, Edward Massie of Manchester, Ralph Holt of the same, Ralph Hobson of Ashton under Lyne, John Soundiforth of Deneshutt, John Beswicke of Droylesden, Edmund Whithead of Lynd, John Winterbottom of Ashton under Lyne, gentlemen, who say that Francis Pendleton, long before his death, was seised in fee of 2 messuages and 4 shops in Manchester, in or near a certain place or lane there, commonly called "le Smithie dore," then in the several tenures of Gaynor Hardy, widow, Edward Tickill, Thomas Royle, William Lea, Ralph Radcliffe, Francis Wosencrofte, Alexander Potter, Daniel Travys, and William Wosencrofte or their assigns, and which were lately purchased by Francis Pendleton to himself and his heirs of one George Bowden of Bowden, in the county of Derby, gentleman.

Francis Pendleton, being so seised, by deed dated 19 Oct., 1610, in consideration of a certain marriage agreed upon, and afterwards solemnised between him the said Francis Pendleton and one Sarah Baryslowe, gave and granted all the aforesaid messuages, shops, and other the premises in Manchester to Abraham and Edward Hemingwaye and their heirs, to the uses following, viz. to the use of himself, Francis Pendleton, and Sarah Baryslowe for the life of the survivor of them, in recompense of dower of the aforesaid Sarah; and, after the decease of both of them, to the use of the heirs male of the said Francis by the said Sarah; and for default to the heirs male of the body of the said Francis Pendleton; and for default to the heirs of the said Francis by the said Sarah; and for default to the use of the right heirs of the said Francis for ever. By virtue whereof, and by force of the Statute of Uses, the said Francis and Sarah were seised of the premises, with remainders as aforesaid. Afterwards the marriage between the said Francis and Sarah was celebrated at Manchester, and they had issue male one Edward Pendleton, their son, who still survives at Manchester, and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 11 years 2 months and 17 days.

Francis Pendleton was likewise, long before his death, seised in fee of 1 messuage, 10 acres of land, 6 acres of meadow and 6 acres of pasture, in Manchester, lying near a certain place called "Grundye lane"; also of 2 messuages, 1 barn, and 1 acre of land in Manchester, lying in or near a certain lane called "le Marketsted lane," and lately in the tenure of him the said Francis Pendleton, Henry Hylton, Thurstan Bradbury, and Robert Jaques, or their assigns; also of 2 messuages, 1 barn, and 2 gardens in Manchester, lying near a certain place called "Withingreave," and then or lately in the tenure of Robert Sotherne, Robert Towneley, and Ralph Whitworth. He, being so seised, a Fine was levied at Lancaster on Monday, in the 5th week of Lent, 16 James [1618], between Otho Holland and Thomas Brownesword, plaintiffs, and Francis Pendleton, deforciant of the aforesaid messuages, lands, and other the premises last mentioned, which said Fine was levied to the uses and agreements contained in a certain Indenture dated 11 Oct., 1619, and made between the said Francis Pendleton of the one part, and the said Otho Holland and Thomas Brownesword, and James Cheetham and William Sparke, gentlemen, of the other part, the tenor whereof is as follows:—[Here the Indenture is set out at length in English.] That in consideration of the love which the said Francis Pendleton bore to Francis, his son and heir apparent, and for the estating of all the said premises to remain in the name and blood of him the said Francis, and to the uses thereafter expressed, and in performance of an agreement formerly had betwixt him (the said Francis) of the one part, and the said Otho Holland of the other part concerning the levying of the said Fine, and for other causes and considerations, for himself, his heirs, executors and administrators, the said Francis did grant, limit and declare to the said Otho Holland, James Cheetam, Thomas Brownesword, and William Sparke, their heirs and assigns, that the said Otho and Thomas, and the heirs of Otho should by virtue of the said Fine be seised of all the said hereditaments, to the uses, provisoes, and agreements thereafter expressed and declared, viz.:—As to his messuages, burgages, and tenements situate near “the Deanegate” in Manchester, and all those 2 messuages, burgages, and tenements lying in or near the “Withingreave,” to the use of Francis Pendleton (the father), and of his heirs and assigns for ever. As to the residue of all the said messuages, burgages, &c. to the use of Francis Pendleton (the father) for life, without impeachment of waste; and after his decease to the use of Otho Holland, James Cheetam, Thomas Brownesword, and William Sparke, and their heirs, during the life of Francis Pendleton (the son), upon trust that the issues and profits thereof should be from time to time used and bestowed by them for the said Francis (the son), for so much thereof as should in their discretion seem fitting to be so employed for his life. As to the residue of the issues and profits during the lifetime of Francis (the son), to the use of such wife, child or children as he (Francis, the son) should happen to have; and in default the same residue to be employed to such uses as Francis (the father) should by any writing or by his last will appoint. And after the decease of Francis (the son) then to the use of his first son and every other son successively in tail male; and for default to the use of the right heirs male of Francis (the father), charged as aforesaid; and for default to the right heirs of Francis (the father) for ever. And it was further granted and declared by Francis Pendleton (the father), and agreed by the other parties, that if Francis (the son) should die without issue male, and have one or more daughters by any wife whom he should happen to marry, that then it should be lawful for the said Otho, James, Thomas, and William, after the death of the said Francis (the father), to hold the said messuages, burgages, &c. (lastly limited to the use of Francis Pendleton (the father) for life), with remainder to Francis (the son, as aforesaid), until such time as they (Otho, James, Thomas, and William) should have received the sum of £200 for the use of such daughter or daughters of Francis (the son) as aforesaid; and for default then the same to be employed for the use of the younger children of Francis (the father) in such manner as he by any writing or by his will should appoint; and, for default, to the equal use of the then younger children of him the said Francis (the father). By virtue of which Fine and Indenture, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Francis Pendleton (named in the writ) was seised of the premises aforesaid in freehold for his life, with remainders as aforesaid, together with the liberties and provisoes mentioned in the Indenture last recited; and, being so seised, he afterwards, 14 April, A.D. 1621, at Manchester, made his will, and by the same he gave to James Cheetam and William Sparke, their heirs and assigns, as follows in English, viz.:—"And as concerninge such lands leases goods and teñts as it hath pleased god to blesse me wthall my will and mynde is that such conveyance as I have formerly made to or for the vse of Sara my nowe wyfe or of any my son or sonnes, childe or Children shall continue remayne and bee to the seūall & respective vses intentē and purposes And accordinge to the true meanynge of the said conveyance and accordinge to the seūall libties vnto mee reserued in & by the said convēance I doe give & bequeath vnto my brother James Cheetam and my Cossen Will'm Sparke theire heires & assignes for eū all those twoe messuages burgages & teñts and one barne wth thapp'tenñce in or neare the Withingreave in Manchester aforesaid nowe or late in the seūall or other houldings or occupacons of Robert Sotherne Rob'te [?] Towneley & Ralph Whitworth, eūy or any of them to the intent that the said James Cheetam & Will'm Sparke shall or may sell or convaye awaye the same & eūy or any of them at the full value to any person or psons whatsoever for & towards the paym<sup>t</sup> & satisfaccon of such debtes as I doe or shall owe or bee indebted to any pson or psons whatsoever, And I doe lickewayes by vertue of the authoritie to mee reserved by thaforesaid conveynce give & bequeath vnto the said James Cheetam & Will'm Sparke the some of twoe hundreth poundes to bee yssueinge & peable forth of such my lands & accordeinge as the same is menconed & reserued in & by one Indenture bearinge date the xjth daye of october 1619 made betwene mee of the one ptie & Otho Holland, James Cheetam, Thomas Brownesword & Will'm Sparke gen<sup>t</sup> of thother ptie the said some of twoe hundreth pounds to bee for the vse & behoofe of my sonnes Henry & Thomas & of my daughters Mary & Martha equally to be divided betwene them the survivo<sup>r</sup> & survivo<sup>rs</sup> of them & cuery of them."

The messuages, lands, and other the premises in Manchester lying near "Grundy lane," are held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, by knight's service, viz. by the 100th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann. (clear) 20s.; the other messuages, lands, tenements, and all the premises whatsoever in Manchester are held of Edward Moseley (now in the custody of the King by reason of his minority) as of his manor of Manchester, in free and common socage by fealty and the rent of . . . . and are worth per ann. (clear) 20s.

Francis Pendleton died 22 April, 19 James [1621]; Francis is his son and heir, and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 14 years 4 months and 5 days. Sarah, his widow, is still surviving at Manchester, and she has had and taken the issues and profits of all the lands and tenements aforesaid from the death of the said Francis up to the day of the taking of this Inquisition.

Sir Edmund Trafford, of Trafford, Knight.

Inquisition taken at Manchester, 1 Oct., 20 James [1622], before Edward Rigby, Esq., Escheator, after the death of Edmund Trafford, late of Trafford, Knt., by the oath of Alexander Barlowe, Knt., Edward Holland, John Greenhalgh, Leonard Ashowe, Edmund Prestwich, Oswald Mosley, Thomas Strangwich, and Thomas Holland, Esqs., and any deed or by his will in writing, should declare as to all or any part of the premises. And after his decease, and immediately upon the determination of the aforesaid several estates, terms, and interests, so to be limited and declared by him as aforesaid, as the same should respectively end, then to the use of one Cecill Trafford, now Knt., one of the sons of Edmund Trafford, and the heirs male of his body ; and for default to the other several uses with the remainder in the aforesaid Indenture specified, as by the said Indenture shown to the Jurors appears. After the making of this Indenture, Edmund Trafford never appointed any other uses, estates, or interests in the aforesaid manors, tenements, and rent, as appears to the Jurors upon the taking of this Inquisition.

Edmund Trafford long before his death was further seised in fee of the moiety of the manors of Bollyn and Norcliff, in the county of Chester ; also of the moiety of 50 messuages, 20 cottages, 500 acres of land, 100 acres of meadow, 200 acres of pasture, 90 acres of wood, 200 acres of furze and heath, and 50s. rent in Bollyn and Norcliff, and in Hough, Pownall, Chorley, Morley, Stonyland, Deanerowe, Fulshawe, and Wylmeslowe, in the county of Chester ; and also of the Advowson of the Church of Wylmeslowe. He being so seised, a fine was levied at Lancaster 29 Sept., 42 Eliz. [1600], between Edward Cecill, Esq., and John Savage, Knt., plaintiffs, and the said Edmund Trafford, then Esq. and afterwards Knt., deforciant, of the moiety of the manors and premises aforesaid, by the name of the moiety of the manors of Bollyn and Norcliffe, and the moiety of 100 messuages, 40 cottages, 600 acres of land, 300 acres of meadow, 200 acres of pasture, 90 acres of wood, 200 acres of furze and heath, and 50s. rent in Bollyn and Norcliffe, and also of the Advowson of the Church of Wilmeslowe, to the several uses mentioned in certain Indentures dated 27 Sept., 42 Eliz. [1600], and made between Edmund Trafford of the one part, and Edward Cecill and John Savage of the other part as follows :—viz. to the use of Edmund Trafford for his life without impeachment of waste ; and after his decease to the use of Cecill Trafford, son of the said Edmund by Lady Mildred, then his wife, and to the heirs male of the body of the said Cecill ; and for default to the other several uses in remainder in the Indenture last mentioned limited and specified, as by the said Indenture shown to the Jurors appears. By virtue of the premises, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Edmund Trafford, being seised as well of all the premises in the county of Lancaster as of those in the county of Chester, died so seised. Cecil Trafford, by virtue of the premises, immediately after his father's death entered into, and was seised of, all the premises aforesaid to himself and his heirs male, and had and took the issues and profits thereof from that time until now, in his own proper right.

The manor of Trafford, and other the premises in Trafford, are held of the King, in free and common socage as of his manor of Salford, by fealty and the yearly rent of 5s., and are worth per ann. (clear) 20 marks. The manor of Stretford, and other the premises in Stretford, are held of the heirs of Geoffrey Massie, Esq., deceased, in free and common socage by fealty and the yearly rent of 1 pair of gloves, and are worth per ann. (clear) £10. The Manor of Barton on Irwell, and other the premises in Barton, Lostocke, Erlam, Hulme, Bromehurst, Dimplington, and Eccles are held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, by the 20th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann. (clear) £5. The messuages and other the premises in Manchester are held of Edward Mosley, Esq., in free socage by fealty only, and are worth per ann. (clear) 10s. The messuages and other the premises in Wigan are held of John, Bishop of Chester, Rector of the Church of Wigan, as of his manor of Wigan, in right of his Rectory, by fealty only, and are worth per ann. (clear) 2s. The moiety of the manors of Bollyn and Norcliffe and other the premises in Hough, Pownall, Chorley, Morley, Stonyland, Deanerowe, Fulshawe, and Wilmeslowe are held of the Most Illustrious Charles, Prince of Wales, as Earl of Chester, by knight's service, viz. by the 3rd part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann. (clear) £40.

Edmund Trafford died at Trafford 7 May, 18 James [1620]; Edmund is his son and heir, and was aged at the time of his father's death 36 years and more. Cecil Trafford, Knt., still survives at Trafford.

Thomas Ashton, of Croston, Esquire.

Vol. xxiii.
No. 48.

4 Oct.

Inquisition taken at Chorley, 4 Oct., 20 James [1622], before Edward Rigby, Esq., Escheator, after the death of Thomas Ashton, late of Croston, Esq., by the oath of William Chorley, Esq., Thurstan Standishe, William Tootell, Hugh Tootell, Thomas Wasley, John Waringe, John Halliwell, John Withnell, John Brindle, John Leyland, William Hauckshead, Thomas Aynscowe, Hugh Nightgall, Thomas Hauckshead, and Alexander Breres, gentlemen, who say that Thomas Ashton, long before his death, was seised in fee of the reversion of a moiety of 1 capital messuage called "Littlewood" in Ulneswalton;<sup>1</sup> also of the reversion of 30 acres of land, 10 acres of meadow, 30 acres of pasture, 20 acres of moor and moss, and 20 acres of furze and heath, in Ulneswalton, expectant upon the term and estate, which Alice, Countess of Derby, widow, then had and still has for the term of her life for her dower as of freehold.

He, being so seised, by Indenture dated 21 Sept., 19 James [1621], and made between himself of the 1st part, William Elston of Brockhall of the 2nd part, and Henry Ashton, son of William Ashton (named in the writ) and Juliana Elston, daughter of William Elston, of the 3rd part, in performance of articles of agreement made 3 Sept. in the same year between the said Thomas Ashton of the one part, and William Elston of the other part, concerning a marriage agreed to be solemnized, which afterwards, and before the taking of this Inquisition, was solemnized between the said Henry and Juliana, and in consideration of the said marriage, and for the better preferment of the said Henry and Juliana, and in consideration of a certain surrender made by the said Henry to Thomas Ashton of a certain prior demise dated 26 July, 15 James [1617], made by Thomas to Henry of all the premises in Ulneswalton, the said Thomas on the same 21 Sept., 19 James [1621], for himself, his heirs and assigns, covenanted with the said William Elston, Henry Ashton, and Juliana Elston, their heirs and assigns, that he (Thomas) and his heirs, and every other person and their heirs, who then were, or afterwards should be, seised of the said lands in

Ulneswalton, should from thenceforth stand seised of the said moiety of the said messuage, and of the said lands and tenements in Ulneswalton, to the several uses afterwards recited in this Inquisition, viz. to the use of Thomas Ashton and his assigns for the term of his natural life, and, after his decease, then to the use of Henry Ashton for his life; and after his decease, to the use of Juliana Elston, for her life; and, after the decease of every of them, to the use of Henry Ashton, his executors and assigns, for the term of 31 years next following, the said Henry and Juliana and their assigns, during their several terms, severally and successively paying yearly to the right heirs and assigns of Thomas Ashton the annual rent of £6 : 13 : 4, And upon the determination of the said estates, terms, and interests, as they should happen to determine, to the use of Thomas Ashton and his heirs male, and for default to the use of Thomas Ashton and his heirs for ever, as by the said Indenture, shown to the Jurors, appears. By virtue whereof, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Thomas Ashton (named in the writ) was seised of the reversion of the said moiety; also of the reversion of the said lands and tenements in Ulneswalton for his life, with remainders as aforesaid.

The Jurors also say that Thomas Ashton was, for a term of 39 years next following the Feast of Christmas, 1 James [1603] (if one Colthurst should so long live), by reason of a certain demise made to the said Thomas Ashton by the said Richard Colthurst, dated 30 Jan., 1 James [1603-4], possessed of the moiety of the manors of Maudesley<sup>1</sup> and Croston; and he was also seised of the 4th part of the manor of Longton; and of 3 messuages, 9 cottages, 5 orchards, 12 gardens, 30 acres of land, 15 acres of meadow, 30 acres of pasture, 40 acres of moss, 40 acres of moor, 100 acres of furze and heath, 18s. free rent, in Maudesley; and of 11 messuages, 11 cottages, 4 tofts, 20 gardens, 20 orchards, 1 water-mill, 150 acres of land, 160 acres of pasture, 40 acres of meadow, 14 acres of wood, 100 acres of moss, 200 acres of furze and heath, and 25s. free rent, in Croston; and of 6 messuages, 5 cottages, 3 tofts, 12 gardens, 10 orchards, 30 acres of land, 20 acres of meadow, 60 acres of pasture, 60 acres of marsh,

100 acres of moor, 100 acres of moss, 205 acres of furze and heath, and 9s. 10½*d.* free rent, in Longton;<sup>1</sup> also of 8s. rent in Chorley; also of 8s. rent in Tarleton, the reversion thereof expectant to the said Richard Colthurst for the term of 40 years next following the Feast of Christmas, 1 James [1603], by reason of a certain demise made to him by Thomas Ashton (named in the writ) 29 Jan., 1 James [1603], the reversion thereof expectant to the said Thomas and his heirs for ever. He, being so seised of the said moiety of the said manors, &c. by Indenture dated 4 Feb., 1 James [1603-4], for divers good considerations then moving him, and in performance of the intentions mentioned in the said Indenture, granted to John Gidlowe, James Haworth, Richard Hodgson, and William Finch and their assigns the aforesaid moiety of the manors, &c. and all other the lands above mentioned; to hold to them and their assigns for the term of 50 years next following the death of the said Thomas, without impeachment of waste, to the several uses specified in the said Indenture, as by the said Indenture, shown to the Jurors, appears. Afterwards Thomas, by Indenture dated 5 Feb., 1 James [1603-4], and made between himself of the one part, and Thomas Hesketh, Knt., deceased, then Attorney General, Ralph Ashton, late of Leaver, Esq., deceased, John Middleton, of Middleton Hall, in Westmoreland, Esq., John Cranffield, late of Roberthall, in Lancashire, Esq., deceased, and John Ashton, late of Penketh, Esq., deceased, of the other part, conveyed, granted, and agreed for himself and his heirs with the said Thomas Hesketh, Ralph Ashton, John Middleton, John Cranffield, and John Ashton, their heirs and assigns, in consideration of the love which he bore to their sons and kinsmen<sup>2</sup> (mentioned in the said Indenture), and to their children, that he, his heirs and assigns, should be seised of the said moiety of the said manors, &c. to the several uses mentioned in the said Indenture and in this Inquisition, viz. to the use of the said Thomas Ashton, for his life without impeachment of waste, and after his decease to the use of Richard Ashton (now deceased, but then surviving), the eldest son and heir apparent of Thomas Ashton (named in the writ), and of his assigns, during his life without impeachment of waste, and after his decease to the use of the first-born and every other son of the said Richard, and to the heirs male of such first-born and other sons successively, and for default to the several uses of divers persons (mentioned in the said Indenture) and to their heirs male, and for default to the use of Thomas Ashton and his right heirs for ever, as by the Indenture appears.

By virtue whereof, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Thomas Ashton was seised of the said moiety of the said manors &c. in his demesne as of freehold for life (with remainders thereof expectant as aforesaid), and, being so seised, he died. Thomas Ashton is his kinsman and heir, viz. the son and heir of the said Richard Ashton, deceased, son and heir of Thomas Ashton (named in the writ), and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 17 years 1 month and 24 days. Richard Ashton died at Maudesley, 1 July, 19 James [1621]. Thomas Ashton (named in the writ) died at Croston, 24 Feb. last past [1621-22].

The moiety of the aforesaid messuage, lands, and tenements in Ulneswalton are held of the King in capite by knight's service, viz. by the 30th part of a knight's fee, and are worth nothing per annum during the life of the said Alice, Countess of Derby (who is still surviving), but after her decease they will be worth 40s. The moiety of the manor of Croston and all other the premises in Croston are held of Lord Mountegle by knight's service, as of his manor of [blank], and are worth nothing during the term of 50 years aforesaid, but afterwards they will be worth per ann. (clear) £6 : 13 : 4. The 4th part of the manor of Longton and all other the premises in Longton are held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, but by what service the Jurors do not know, and are worth nothing during the said term of 50 [sic] years, but afterwards they will be worth 60s. The moiety of the manor of Maudesley and all and singular the premises in Maudesley are held of the lords of the Hundred of Leyland in socage by fealty only, and are worth nothing per annum during the said term of 50 years, but afterwards they will be worth 50s. The rents in Chorley and Tarleton are held, but of whom or by what service the Jurors do not know, and are worth nothing during the said term, but afterwards they will be worth 16s.

John Holte, of Stubley, Esquire.

Vol. xxiii.
No. 53.
8 Jan.
1622-23.

Inquisition taken at Manchester, 8 Jan., 20 Jan. [1622-3], before John Greehalgh, . . . . Radcliffe and Alexander Butterworth, Esqs., Hugh Rigby, Esq., Deputy Escheator, and John Haworth, gentleman, Deputy Feodary of the County, Commissioners, after the death of John Holte, late of Stubley,<sup>1</sup> Esq., by the oath of Abel Buckley of Buckley, Esq., John Cudworth of Wernith, John Hutton of Sinderland, Henry Keley of Manchester, Miles Andrew of Lees, John Hopkin of Lees, Robert Bardeley of Waterhouses, Abraham Stansfield of Hamer, Thomas Newton of Woodhouses, Edward Massie of Manchester, Thomas Ashton of Redish, John Smith of Ashton, Edmund Haywood of [Tanton], Robert Taylor of Hurshedge, Richard Smith of Litlemosse, Edward Walker of Ashton, James Chadwicke of Roughbancke, John Clough of Woodhouses, Charles Bexwicke of Failesworth, Edmund Whitehead of Birchinlee, and James Travers of Waterside, gentlemen, who say that John Holte was seised in fee of the manors of Hundersfield,<sup>1</sup> Spotland,<sup>1</sup> and Castleton,<sup>1</sup> of 90 messuages, 2 water-mills, 1,200 acres of land, 300 acres of meadow, 1,200 acres of pasture, 100 acres of wood and under-wood, and 3 acres of moor, moss, furze, and heath in Hundersfield, Spotland, Rachedale, Burie, Castleton, Butterworth,<sup>1</sup> Middleton, and Tottington ;<sup>2</sup> of 2 messuages, 20 acres of land, 5 acres of meadow, and 15 acres of pasture in Butterworth, lately purchased by him (John Holte) for himself and his heirs of Gerrard Scolfield, Henry Tong, . . . . . One Mary Tong, then wife of Henry Tong, now deceased, was then entitled to dower of all the premises aforesaid, of the gift of Charles Holt, late her husband, and late father of John Holt, named in the Commission. He, being so seised, and the said Mary so entitled to dower, by an Indenture tripartite, dated 13 March, 43 Eliz. [1599-1600], and made between himself of the first part, Henry Tonge of Denton, in the county of Durham, Esq., and Mary, then his wife, of the 2nd part, and Nicholas Bannester, of Altham, Esq., Alexander Butterworth, of Butterworth, Esq., Abraham Belfield, of Cleggeswood, and

Robert Walkden, of Wardley, yeoman, of the 3rd part, it was agreed, for the considerations therein mentioned, that John Holte, Henry Tong and Mary, his wife, before the Feast of Easter then next following, should levy a Fine at Lancaster to the aforesaid Nicholas Bannester and Robert Walkden, or the survivor of them, and the heirs of one of them, of all the premises aforesaid, and that the said Fine should be for so much of the premises whereof any Common Recovery should be suffered to the use of such "Comisees" to the intent to make them perfect tenants of the premises, viz.:—As to the capital messuage of Stubble, and all the houses, buildings, orchards, gardens, &c. thereto belonging in Stubble, and as to 1 water-mill, and soc, suit, multure, and water-courses to the said mill belonging in Stubble, which said capital messuage, houses, &c. time out of memory have been parcel of the premises above mentioned in Hundersfield and Butterworth, to the use of John Holte and his assigns for the term of 80 years then next following, if Mary Tonge should so long live, provided that John Holte and his assigns should yearly during the term pay to Henry and Mary, during the life of Mary, a certain yearly rent on the days mentioned in the said Indenture in manner and form following:—During the joint lives of Henry and Mary, at the mansion of the said Henry, in Denton, in the county of Durham, and, in case of his decease during her lifetime, then to the said Mary or her assigns for life, at Stubble Hall. And upon the determination of the said term of years, or by "effluxion of tyme" or otherwise, then as follows:—As to the capital messuage of Stubble, &c. to the sole use of Henry and Mary and their assigns for the life of Mary; and from and after her decease to the use of John Holte (named in the Commission) and the heirs male of his body; and for default to the use of divers other persons named in the said Indenture, in fee tail, with remainder or reversion thereof to John Holte and his heirs for ever. If the said yearly rent should not be paid every year during the term aforesaid, the said Henry and Mary and their assigns (during the life of Mary) should quietly hold to their own proper use all the said premises in Stubble. As to all that capital messuage commonly called "Castleton," and the lands and hereditaments to the same belonging, and 1 water-mill in Castleton, then or lately in the tenure of John Holt or his assigns, and as to all the other premises in Castleton wherein the said John then or at any other time after the death of his father (Charles) had any estate; which said capital messuage and other the premises last mentioned are, and time out of memory have been, parcel of the premises in Castleton. And as to 1 messuage and tenement in Haslomhey, within the parish of Bury, then or lately in the tenure of Michael Bentley, being parcel of the premises aforesaid in Bury; and as to 1 messuage called "Newhall" and certain shops and cellars to the same belonging situate in Rachedale, then or lately in the tenure of John Holt and his assigns (parcel of the premises in Rachedale whereof John Holte was seised as of fee), to the use of John Holt and Dorothy his wife and their assigns for their lives and for the life of the survivor of them, in the name of jointure for the said Dorothy, and in lieu of her dower; and, after the decease of both of them, then to the use of John Holt and his heirs male; and for default then to divers other uses specified in the said Indenture, with remainder or reversion thereof to John Holte and his heirs for ever. And as to the residue of all the premises wherein no use was before limited, to the use of John Holt and his heirs male; and for default to divers other uses, with remainder to John Holte and his heirs for ever, as by the said Indenture shown to the Jurors appears.

John Holte being so seised, a Fine was levied at Lancaster on Monday, in the 5th week of Lent, 43 Eliz. [1601], between Nicholas Bannester Esq., and Robert Walkden, plaintiffs, and John Holte, Henry Tounge, Esq., and Mary, his wife, deforciant, of all the premises aforesaid by the name of the manors of Naden and Chesam, 200 messuages, 2 mills, 200 gardens, 1,000 acres of land, 200 acres of meadow, 1,000 acres of pasture, 500 acres of moor, 500 acres of furze and heath, and 100s. rent in Naden, Chesam, Hundersfield, Spotland, Butterworth, Castleton, Bury, and Middleton, to the intent to make Nicholas Bannester and Robert Walkden tenants in freehold of all the premises aforesaid, by virtue whereof they might suffer a Common Recovery to be had against them according to the agreements aforesaid, as by a Transcript of the Fine shown to the Jurors in evidence appears.

On Monday, in the 5th week of Lent, 43 Eliz. [1601], out of the Court of Chancery at Lancaster Alexander Butterworth and Abraham Belfield sued a writ of Ingressu super disseisin in le Post against Nicholas Bannester and Robert Walkden of all the premises aforesaid, &c. [Here follows a full account of the case.] It was, therefore, considered by the Court that the said Alexander and Abraham should recover their seisin against Nicholas and Robert, by virtue thereof they (Alexander and Abraham) entered into and were seised of the said premises. By pretext whereof, and by force of the Statute of Uses, John Holt was respectively possessed and seised of all the said premises, for the several estates charged and chargeable as aforesaid, with remainder and reversion thereof as aforesaid, and he died being so seised thereof.

Henry Tonge died 26 Nov., 13 James [1615], at Denton; Mary, his widow, still survives at Castleton.

On 24 Aug., 20 James [1622], at Castleton, John Holt made his Will in writing, and appointed Dorothy, his wife, and Robert Holt, his son and heir, executors thereof, as by the said Will, shown to the Jurors in evidence, appears.

The yearly rent above mentioned and limited to be paid to Mary Tonge was so paid by John Holt from time to time during his lifetime, and after his decease the said sum, or so much thereof as had accrued to be payable, was in like manner paid by Dorothy and Robert.

The manors, messuages, lands, and other the premises in Hundersfield, Butterworth, Spotland, and Tottington (except the 2 messuages in Butterworth lately purchased by John Holt of Gerrard Scholfield) are held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, by knight's service, viz. by the 40th part of a knight's fee and by 26s. yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) £20. The manor of Castleton, together with the messuages, lands, and other the premises in Castleton (except certain lands and tenements there containing 100 acres of land and 220 acres of waste, in the several tenures of Alexander Holt, David Holt, Edmund Duorden, Roger Chadwick, John Scolefield, James Scolefield, Richard Holt, Robert Colling, Anthony Mylue, and Robert Gorrell or their assigns, and formerly purchased by Charles Holt, father of John Holt named in the writ, for himself and his heirs of William Gryse and Charles Newcomen; and except 4 messuages or tenements in Balderston within Castleton, now or lately in the several tenures of Richard Witworth, James Whitworth, Otwell Worrall, and Edmund Feild, or their assigns, and formerly purchased by Charles Holt for himself and his heirs of John Talbot, Esq.), are held of the King in capite by knight's service, viz. by the 10th part of a knight's fee and by 22s. 4½*d.* yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) £6. 10s. The lands, tenements, and other the premises in Castleton (before excepted) are held of the King, as of his manor of East Greenwich, by fealty only, in free socage, and not in capite or by knight's service, and are worth per ann. (clear) 40s. The 4 messuages and tenements and other the premises in Balderston within Castleton (before excepted) are held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, by the 100th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann. (clear) 5s. The messuages, lands, and other the premises in Bury are held of the Most Noble William, Earl of Derby, as of his manor of Bury, in socage and by the yearly rent of 4s. 4*d.*, and are worth per ann. (clear) £6. 10s. The messuages, and other the premises in Middleton, in Salfordshire, are held of the King by reason of the custody of Ralph Ashton, of Middleton, Esq., then and now in the custody of the King during his minority, in free socage, and are worth per ann. (clear) 10s. 4*d.* Of whom or by what service the 2 messuages in Butterworth (before excepted) are held the Jurors know not, and they are worth per ann. (clear) 10s.

John Holte died at Castleton 29 Aug. last past [1622]; Robert Holte is his son and heir, and at the time of his father's death was aged 20 years 14 days and no more. Dorothy, late wife of John Holt, is yet alive at Castleton.

Edmund Raft.

Vol. xxiv.
No. 22.
16 Jan.
1622-23.

Inquisition taken at Garstange, 16 Jan., 20 James [1622-23], before Edward Rigby, Esq., Escheator, after the death of Edmund Raft, by the oath of the same Jurors, who say that long before the death of Edmund Raft one John Raft, deceased, father of the said Edmund, was seised in fee of 1 messuage, 10 acres of land, 3 acres of meadow, 3 acres of pasture, and and 1 acre of wood in Aughton.

John Raft, being so seised, by Indenture dated 18 April, 6 James [1608], in consideration of a marriage then to be had between the said Edmund Raft, then his eldest son and heir apparent, and one Margaret Taylor, enfeoffed Oswald Hiesham, Robert Burton, James Rawneson, and Christopher Fell of the said messuages, lands, &c.: To hold to them and their heirs to the use of John Raft for life, and, after his decease, to the use of Edmund Raft for life; and after his decease then as to so many parcels of the premises as before that time were in the possession of one Agnes Raft, containing 7 acres, to the use of Margaret Taylor for life; and, after her decease, to the use of the heirs of the said Edmund Raft for ever; and, after the decease of Edmund Raft, as to the residue of the said messuages, lands, &c., not limited to the use of Margaret Taylor, to the use of the heirs of the said Edmund by the said Margaret for ever, as by the said deed, shown to the Jurors, appears. And, afterwards, and before the death of the said John Raft, the said Edmund took to wife the said Margaret Taylor, by virtue of which premises, and by force of the Statute of Uses, the said John Raft was seised of the premises aforesaid for life as of freehold, with remainders thereof expectant, as aforesaid.

The messuages, lands, and tenements in Aughton are held of the King in capite by knight's service, viz., by the 200th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per annum (clear) 5s.

Edmund Raft died at Aughton 23 Jan., 11 James [1613-14], and John Raft died at the same place 20 Oct. last past [1622]. John Raft is the son and next heir of the said Edmund by the said Margaret, and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 13 years, 2 months, and 16 days.

The said John Raft (the father) took the issues and profits of all the lands and tenements aforesaid after the death of the said Edmund up to the time of the death of the said John, and one William Toward took them after the decease of the said John up to the day of taking this Inquisition.

William Naylor, of Hardshaw, Yeoman.

Vol. xxiv.
No. 85.
17 Jan.

Inquisition taken at Wigan, 17 Jan., 20 James [A. D. 1622-3], before Edward Rigby, Esq., Escheator, after the death of William Naylor, of Hardshaw, within the town of Windle,<sup>1</sup> yeoman, by the oath of Robert Barrow of Wigan, James Markland of Wigan, Roger Bullocke of Wigan, Charles Leigh of Wigan, Hugh Longshaw of Wigan, Ralph Astley of Wigan, Nicholas Pennington of Ince, Robert Gorton of Aspull, Geoffrey Sherrington of Wigan, Robert Banckes of Wigan, Richard Casson of Wigan, Christopher Banckes of Wigan, Adam Banckes of Wigan, William Ormishaw of Wigan, Thomas Banckes of Wigan, Robert Pennington of Wigan, Hugh Mason of Wigan Woodhouses, and Roger Laythwaite of Wigan Woodhouses, gentlemen, who say that William Naylor, long before his death, was seised in fee of 2 messuages and 20 acres of land, meadow and pasture, in Sutton;<sup>1</sup> also of 1 messuage and 16 acres of land, meadow and pasture, in Hardshawe within the town of Windle.

So seised, by deed dated 10 Nov. last past [1622], he enfeoffed thereof James Longshawe, and John Naylor to hold to them, their heirs and assigns, to the uses mentioned in a certain schedule, to the said deed annexed,—[Here the deed is set out at length]—to the uses and intents in a certain Indenture (to the said deed annexed) specified and declared, to hold of the chief lords of that fee by the service thereof due and accustomed. He constituted Francis Wilkinson of Windle, and Robert Wainewright of Eccleston-juxta-Knowesley, yeomen, his true and lawful attorneys, to deliver possession and seisin thereof, to the said James Longshawe and John Naylor, according to the effect of the said schedule; [Here follows the schedule, set out at length in English, the tenor whereof is as follows]—That James Longshawe and John Naylor (feoffees in the said deed named) and their heirs should stand seised after the execution thereof of all the premises in the said deed contained, to the use of the said William Naylor and his assigns for life without impeachment of waste; and after his decease, to the use of Margery

Naylor his wife and her assigns, until William Naylor, son and heir of the said William Naylor (party thereto) should attain the age of 21 years, the said Margery during the same time maintaining all the children of him the said William Naylor (the father), or so many of them as should accept the same, or should live sole and unmarried, with meat, drink, lodging, &c.; and immediately after the said William (the son) should have accomplished the age of 21 years, that then the said feoffees and their heirs should be seised of a full 3rd part of all the said premises (in 3 parts to be divided) to the use of the said Margery and her assigns for life, in the name of her jointure or dower. And that the said feoffees should be seised as well of all the residue of the said premises as also of the reversion of the said 3rd part (thereinbefore limited to the use of the said Margery) to the use of William Naylor (the son) and the heirs male of his body; and for default to the use of John Naylor, bastard son of the said William (the father), and his heirs male; and for default successively to the use of the heirs male of the body of the said William Naylor (the father), and lastly, to the use of his right heirs for ever.

The messuages and lands in Sutton are held of Richard Bould, Esq., as of his manor of Sutton, by knight's service, viz. by the 40th part of a knight's fee and 4*d.* yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 40*s.* The messuage and lands in Hardshaw are held of William, Earl of Derby, as of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England, in free socage by fealty only, and are worth per ann. (clear) 5*s.*

William Naylor died seised of the premises 26 Dec. last past [1622], and William Naylor is his son and next heir, and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 4 years and 6 months.

Francis Holt, being so seised, a Fine was levied at Lancaster on Monday in the fifth week of Lent, 30 Eliz. [1588], between Edward Littleton, John Culcheth, and Charles Holt, Esqs., and Richard Lee, plaintiffs, and the said Francis Holt and Ellen his wife, and Thomas Holt, then son and heir apparent of Francis Holt and grandfather of James (named in the Commission), and Constance his wife, deforciant, of the aforesaid manors, messuages, &c., whereupon a plea of covenant was summoned between them in the said Court, to wit, that Francis and Ellen, Thomas and Constance acknowledged the manors and tenements aforesaid to be the right of Edward Littleton as those which he John Culcheth, Charles Holt, and Richard Lee had of the gift of the said Francis and Ellen, Thomas and Constance, and the same remised and quit-claimed for themselves and their heirs to Edward, &c., and to the heirs of Edward for ever: which Fine was levied of the manors and tenements aforesaid to the uses and limits expressed in a certain Indenture dated 7 March, 30 Eliz. [1587-88], and made between Francis Holt and Ellen his wife, and Thomas Holt and Constance, then his wife, of the one part, and Ellen Littleton, widow, late wife of Edward Littleton, Knt., deceased, of the other part; viz. as to the manor of Steed, and other the premises in Steed and Ribchester, 10 messuages, 1 mill, 200 acres of land, 40 acres of meadow, and 100 acres of pasture in Spotland, Radchdale, and Whitworth to the use of Thomas and Constance for their lives and the life of the survivor, in the name of jointure for the said Constance; and after the decease of both of them then to the use of Francis, son and heir apparent of Thomas in tail male; and for default then to the several and successive uses of divers persons mentioned in the Indenture in tail male; and for default then to the use of the right heirs of Francis for ever. As to the manor of Gristlehurst, and 40 messuages, 3 mills, 300 acres of land, 100 acres of meadow, and 300 acres of pasture in Gristlehurst, Bury, Middleton, Bamford, Spotland, and Ratchdale (parcel of the premises whereof Francis, the great-grandfather, was seised as aforesaid) to the use of Francis and Ellen for their lives; and then to the use of Thomas for his life, and after his decease to the use of Francis and his heirs male, with remainders as aforesaid. As to the manor of Fortune and other the hereditaments in Fortune, and 7 other messuages, 100 acres of land, 50 acres of meadow, and 100 acres of pasture in Spotland (other parcel of the aforesaid premises) to the use of Francis Holt (the great-grandfather) for his life, and after his decease to the use of Edmund Holt, his younger son, for his life, and then to the use of Thomas for his life, and after his decease to the use of Francis and his heirs male, with remainders as aforesaid. Edmund still survives at Ratchdall. As to 6 other messuages, 100 acres of land, 20 acres of meadow, and 100 acres of pasture in Spotland, Bamford, and Ratchdall (other parcel of the premises aforesaid), to the use of Francis for his life, and then to the use of Thomas for his life, and after his decease to the use of Francis (father of James) in tail male, with remainders as aforesaid. As to 9 other messuages, 100 acres of land, 20 acres of meadow, and 80 acres of pasture in Whitworth and Spotland (other parcel of the premises aforesaid) to the use of Francis for his life, and after his decease to the use of Francis, another younger son, for his life, and after his decease to the use of Thomas for his life, and then to the use of Francis, with remainders as aforesaid. Francis, the younger, still survives at Ratchdall. As to 11 other messuages, 140 acres of land, 30 acres of meadow, 100 acres of pasture, and 1 mill in Spotland, Whitworth, and Ratchdall (further parcel of the premises aforesaid) to the use of Francis for his life, and after his decease to the use of Ralph, his 3rd son, for his life, with remainders as aforesaid. As to 9 other messuages, 100 acres of land, and 100 acres of pasture in Whitworth and Spotland (other parcel of the premises aforesaid) to the use of Francis for his life, and after his decease to the use of John, his 4th son, for his life, with remainders as aforesaid. As to 9 other messuages, 100 acres of land, 10 acres of meadow, and 100 acres of pasture in Spotland and Whitworth to the use of Francis, and then to the use of Edward, his 6th son, with remainders as aforesaid. The said Edward died long before his father. As to the residue of all the manors, &c., aforesaid to the use of Francis (the great-grandfather) for his life, and then to the use of Thomas for life, and then to the use of Francis, and then to the use of divers persons (mentioned in the Indenture), and, lastly, to the use of the right heirs of Francis for ever, as by the Indenture shown to the Jurors appears; by the which Indenture it was among other things agreed: that it should be lawful for Thomas Holt, by his will or by deed, to give to every of his younger sons an annuity of £5, issuing out of all the said manors, subject to the conditions therein specified. By virtue of which Fine and Indenture, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Francis and Ellen, and Thomas and Constance were severally and respectively seised of the manors, lands, &c. for the terms of their lives with the remainders and reversions expectant thereupon as aforesaid.

Thomas Holt, being so seised for his life of the remainder of the manor of Gristlehurst, and other the premises in Gristlehurst, Bury, &c. (limited to the use of Francis and Ellen for their lives) with remainder to Francis (father of James) in tail male, a Fine was levied in the Court at Lancaster on Monday, 29 Aug., 1 James [1603], between Edmund Hopwood, Esq., plaintiff, and Thomas Holt and Francis Holt, deforciant, of the aforesaid manor of Gristlehurst, and other the aforesaid messuages, &c. in Gristlehurst, Bury, &c.; whereupon a plea of covenant was summoned between them to wit, Thomas and Francis acknowledged the manor and tenements aforesaid to be the right of Edmund as those which he had of their gift, and the same remised for them and their heirs to Edmund and his heirs for ever: which Fine was levied to the use of Thomas during the life of Francis (if he should so long live), and upon the determination of the aforesaid estate limited to Thomas, then to the use of Katherine, wife of Francis (father of James) for her life as her dower; and after her decease to the use of Francis in tail male; and for default to the use of divers persons (mentioned in the Indenture) in tail male; and, lastly, to the use of the right heirs of Francis (the great-grandfather) for ever. Katherine still survives at Ratchdale. By virtue whereof, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Thomas Holt was seised of the remainder of the premises aforesaid, with remainders as aforesaid.

By deed, dated 5 Nov., 7 James [1609], in consideration of his love for Edward, his 3rd son by Constance, and for his better maintenance, and according to the power reserved to him in the last-mentioned Indenture, Thomas Holt granted to him an annuity of £5 for his life, and by the same deed, and for the same considerations, granted him another annuity of £3 for the term of his life, issuing out of divers lands in Whitworth, Rossendale, and Spotland, and out of all other his lands in Lancashire.

By another deed, bearing even date with the last, and for the same reasons, he granted to Thomas, his second son, two several annuities of £5 and £3 for his life, issuing out of lands in Whitworth, Rossendale, and Spotland, and all his other lands. Edward and Thomas still survive at Rachdale. Afterwards, Francis and Ellen died, and Thomas survived them; after that, Thomas and Constance died, after whose death Francis was seised in freehold for the life of Katherine, with remainder to him and his heirs male, and with remainders as aforesaid as to the premises in Gristlehurst, &c.

Francis Holt was also seised in fee-tail, viz. to himself and his heirs male, of the manor of Steed, and other lands and tenements in Steed and Ribchester; also of the 10 messuages, &c. in Spotland, Rachdale, and Whitworth (limited to the use of Thomas and Constance); also of the 9 other messuages &c. in Spotland and Whitworth (limited to the use of Francis, the great-grandfather, with remainders as aforesaid); also of the residue of all the manors, &c. first severally and respectively limited to the uses of Edward, Francis, Ralph, and John, his younger sons.

Francis (father of James), being so seised, a Fine was levied in the Court of Lancaster on Monday in the 4th week of Lent, 7 James [1609], between Edward Littleton, Knt., Thomas Holcrofte, Knt., and Theophilus Ashton, Esq., plaintiffs, and Francis Holt, deforciant, of all and singular the manors, &c. of which he (Francis) was seised in possession or remainder [here they follow by name], whereupon a plea of covenant was summoned between them, viz. Francis acknowledged the manors aforesaid to be the right of the said Edward as those which he Thomas and Theophilus had of his gift, and the same remised for himself and his heirs to them and the heirs of Edward for ever, which said Fine was levied to the use of Francis (father of James) for his life without impeachment of waste; and, after his decease, to the use of James (named in the commission) and his heirs male; and for default to the use of William, 2nd son of Francis, and his heirs male; and for default to the use of Theophilus, his 3rd son, in tail male; and for default then to the use of the 1st to the 8th son of Francis in tail male; and for default to the use of any other son or sons of the said Francis in tail male; and for default to the use of Francis and his heirs male, and, lastly, to the use of the right heirs of Francis for ever, as by an Indenture dated 15 March, 6 James [1608-9], and made between the said Francis of the one part, and the said Edward, Thomas, and Theophilus of the other part, shown to the Jurors, appears. By virtue whereof, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Francis was seised of the aforesaid manors, &c. for his life, with remainders thereof as aforesaid. Thomas had issue by Constance 2 younger sons, viz. Thomas and Edward, who still survive.

Francis Holt died, so seised, at Rachdale, 28 Sept., 15 James [1617]; James (named in the commission) was his son and heir, and was then aged 16 years 10 months and 20 days. After whose decease, by reason of the premises and the minority of James, and by means of an Inquisition taken 12 Jan., 15 James [1617-18], before Edward Rigby, Esq.,

Escheator,<sup>1</sup> after the death of Francis Holt, the said estates were ascertained by due form of law; James Holt, and a 3rd part of the tenements aforesaid, then being in the custody of the King. After the death of Francis, James was seised of the said manors, &c., with remainders as aforesaid, and William, his younger brother, died during his lifetime without heirs. Afterwards, 20 Feb. last past [1622–23], James died without heirs; Theophilus is his brother and heir, and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 14 years 1 month and 15 days.

The manor of Steed, and other the premises in Steed and Ribchester, and the aforesaid 10 messuages, &c. in Spotland, Rachdale, and Whitworth, limited to Thomas Holte and Constance for their lives, are held of the King by knight's service, viz. by the 50th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann. (clear) £4. The manor of Grislehurst, and the 40 messuages, 3 mills, &c. in Grislehurst, Bury, Middleton, Bamford, Spotland, and Rachdale, limited, after the death of Francis Holte, the elder, to Katherine, late wife of Francis Holte, are held in form following, viz.—the manor of Grislehurst, and other the premises in Bury and Middleton, of Ralph Ash, Esq., in free socage; the hereditaments in Bamford, of the heirs of William Bamford, gent. (deceased), in free and common socage by fealty only; the lands and tenements in Spotland and Rachdale, of the King in free socage, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, by fealty only; all which manor and hereditaments last mentioned are worth per ann. (clear) £6 : 13 : 4. The manor and other the hereditaments in Forton, and the other messuages in Spotland, limited, after the death of Francis Holte, the elder, to Edmund Holte, his 5th son, for life, are held of the King in capite by knight's service, and are worth per ann. (clear) £5 : 13 : 4. The 6 other messuages, &c. in Spotland, Bamford, and Rachdale, limited, after the death of Francis Holte, the elder, to Thomas Holte, with remainder as aforesaid, are held in form following, viz.—the messuages, &c. in Spotland, of the King by knight's service (clear yearly value, 20s.); the hereditaments in Rachdale, of the King in free socage (clear yearly value, 10s.); the hereditaments in Bamford, of the heirs of William Bamford, gent. (deceased), in socage by fealty only (clear yearly value, 5s.). The 9 other messuages, 100 acres of land, &c. in Whitworth and Spotland, limited, after the death of Francis Holte the elder, to Francis, his 2nd son, with remainder as aforesaid, are held of the King by knight's service, and are worth per ann. (clear) 53s. 4d. The 11 other messuages, 140 acres of land, &c. in Spotland, Whitworth, and Rachdale, limited to Ralph, 3rd son of Francis, for life, are held thus:—the messuages, &c. in Spotland and Whitworth, of the King by knight's service; those in Rachdale, of the King in free socage (clear yearly value, £4). The 9 messuages, &c. in Spotland and Whitworth, limited to John Holte, 4th son of Francis, for life, are held of the King by knight's service, and are worth per ann. (clear) 40s. The 9 messuages, &c. in Spotland and Whitworth, limited, after the death of Francis, to Edward Holte, his 6th son, for life, are held of the King by knight's service, and are worth per ann. (clear) 40s. As to the residue of all the manors, messuages, lands, &c. limited to Francis Holte the elder for life, and then to Thomas Holte, with remainder as aforesaid, the Jurors know not of whom they, or any of them, are held; but their clear yearly value is 20s.

Thomas Astley, of Stakes, Gentleman.

Vol. xxiv.
No. 60.
31 July,

Inquisition taken at Bolton in le mores, 31 July, 21 James [1623], before Edward Rigby, Esq., Escheator, after the death of Thomas Astley, Gentleman, by the oath of the same Jurors, who say that long before the death of Thomas Astley (named in the writ) one Thomas Astley (his father) was seised in fee of 1 capital messuage called "le Hall of Stakes" within the township of Livesaie;<sup>1</sup> also of 20 acres of land, 8 acres of meadow, and 12 acres of pasture to the said capital messuage belonging; 6 messuages, 10 acres of land, 4 acres of meadow, 6 acres of pasture in Livesaie; 20 acres of land, then lately improved from the waste of Livesaie; 4 messuages, 30 acres of land, 10 acres of meadow, and 20 acres of pasture in Witton; 34 acres of land, then lately improved from the waste of Witton;<sup>1</sup> 1 messuage, 10 acres of land, 4 acres of meadow, and 10 acres of pasture in Netherdarwine.<sup>1</sup>

So seised, by an Indenture dated 28 Aug., 15 James [1617], and made between themselves of the one part, and William, Randal,<sup>2</sup> Richard, and Edward Astley (sons of Thomas Astley, the father), and Millicent Paslewe, his daughter, of the other part, Thomas Astley (the father) and Thomas Astley (the son) demised to the said William, Randal, Richard, Edward, and Millicent all that capital messuage called "le Stakes" (parcel of the premises in Livesaie); all the capital messuage called "Witton" (parcel of the premises in Witton), and all the demesne lands to the said messuages respectively belonging; also all the hereditaments of the said Thomas (the father) in Livesaie, Witton, and Netherdarwine (residue of the premises) to hold to them, their executors, administrators, and assigns from the day of the date thereof for the term of 20 years: provided that if the said Thomas Astley, or his son Thomas should pay to the said William, Randal, Richard, Edward, and Millicent, their executors or assigns, the sum of £300 during the said term, within the mansion-house<sup>3</sup> called "le Stakes," that then the said demise should be void, as by the said Indenture, shown to the Jurors, more fully appears. By virtue whereof William, Randal, Richard, and Edward Astley and Millicent Paslewe were seised of the said capital messuage and all other the premises for the term aforesaid. They and Thomas Astley (the father) being so seised, the latter died 2 Sept., 15 James [1617], after whose death all the premises in Livesaie, Witton, and Netherdarwine descended to Thomas Astley (named in the writ), as of fee, as his son and heir, and he was seised thereof.

Thomas Astley (named in the writ), William, Randal, Richard, and Edward Astley, Millicent Paslewe, and Mary Astley, widow, late wife of Thomas Astley (the father), by an Indenture dated 20 Dec., 15 James [1617], and made between themselves of the one part, and John Southworth and Adam Southworth of the other part, in consideration of £300 paid to them by the said John and Adam, demised to John and Adam certain parcels of the capital messuage in Witton therein specified, and also certain closes (parcel of the demesne lands in Witton), and 3 parts of "the fouldes," in 4 parts to be divided, to the said capital messuage belonging, to hold to them, their executors and assigns, for all the residue of the said term of 20 years, they paying to Thomas Astley (named in the writ), his heirs and assigns, the yearly rent of 2s. and "two daies leadinge turbary," and grinding all the grain remaining upon the premises at the mill of the said Thomas in Witton.

By another Indenture dated 20 Dec., 1617, and made between themselves of the one part, and James Holden, of Witton, of the other part, in consideration of the sum of £100 paid by the said James Holden, Thomas Astley (named in the writ), William, Randal, Richard, and Edward Astley, Millicent Paslewe, and Mary Astley, demised to the said James Holden the capital messuage called "Witton," and 1 garden thereto belonging, and a certain barn, and the 4th part (in 4 parts divided) of "the fouldes" to the said capital messuage belonging; and 5 closes (parcel of the demesne lands with the said capital messuage usually occupied); to hold to the said James Holden, his executors and assigns, for the residue of the said term, he paying therefor to the said Thomas Astley, his heirs and assigns, the yearly rent of 12d., and the grinding of all grain growing upon the lands so demised to James Holden at Astley Milne by multure and tallage. By virtue of which Indentures and demises John Southworth, and Adam Southworth, and James Holden severally and respectively were seised of the premises for the term aforesaid, with reversion thereof to Thomas Astley.

The said Thomas, William, Randal, Richard, Edward, and Millicent being so seised, by an Indenture dated 29 Dec., 15 James [1617], and made between themselves of the one part, and William Farrington of Werden, and James Livesaie of Livesaie, of the other part, enfeoffed the said William Farrington and James Livesaie of all the premises in Livesaie, Witton, and Netherdarwine, to hold to them, their heirs and assigns, to the use of Thomas Astley (named in the writ) for life without impeachment of waste; and after his decease to the use of Thomas Astley, then his son and heir apparent, for life in like manner; and after his decease successively in tail male to the use of his 1st to his 10th son; and for default of such issue to the use of divers other persons mentioned in the said Indenture, and their heirs male respectively; and for default to the use of the right heirs of Thomas Astley (named in the writ) for ever, as by the said Indenture last mentioned, shown to the Jurors, appears. By virtue whereof, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Thomas Astley (named in the writ) was seised of all the premises aforesaid as of freehold for life, with remainders thereof as aforesaid, and, so seised, he died 20 June last past [1623] at Livesaie; Thomas Astley is his son and next heir, and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 9 years 7 months and 17 days. This said Thomas last named, and the Thomas to whom was limited the remainder of all the premises aforesaid after his father's death, are one and the same person.

The sum of £300 above mentioned has not yet been paid according to the form and effect of the condition in the first mentioned Indenture by the said Thomas (named in the writ) or by his son Thomas, to the said William, Randal, Richard, Edward, and Millicent.

The messuage, lands, and other the premises in Livesaie (the land lately improved from the waste of Livesaie excepted), are held of the lord of Livesaie in free socage by the yearly rent of 5s. 8d., and are worth per ann. (clear) 40s. The land lately improved from the waste of Livesaie is held of the King in capite by knight's service, viz. by the 60th part of a knight's fee, and is worth per ann. (clear) 5s. The messuages, lands, and other the premises in Witton are held of the King in capite by knight's service, viz. by the 20th part of a knight's fee, and by 9d. yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 40s. The messuage and other the premises in Netherdarwine are held of the King in capite by knight's service, viz. by the 100th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann. (clear) 10s.

Richard Mollineux was likewise seised in fee tail, viz. to himself and his heirs of the Offices of Master of the Foresters, forests and parks of the Lord the King, within the Wapentake of West Derby ; also of the Office of Steward within the same Wapentake ; also of the Office of Constable of the Castle of Liverpool, taking the wages and fees whatsoever to the said office of Constable belonging ; also of £7. 19s. fee farm rent issuing out of lands and tenements in Hulme Wakefield, in the county of Chester ; also of the manor of Shenton, 20 messuages, 10 cottages, 30 gardens, 30 orchards, 300 acres of land, 1,000 acres of pasture, 100 acres of meadow, 200 acres of furze and heath, 5s. free rent, and 20s. of fee farm rent in Shenton, in the county of Leicester.

He being so seised, a Fine was levied at Lancaster on Monday in the 4th week of Lent, 12 James [1614], between William Norreis, Knt. of the Honourable Order of the Bath, John Byron, the younger, Knt., William Towse, Serjeant at Law, William Ford, Esq., Edward Michell, Esq., and William Ireland, Esq., plaintiffs, and Richard Mollineux, Knt. and Bart. (named in the commission), and Frances<sup>1</sup> his wife, deforciant, of the capital messuage called "the Hall of Torbock" and all other hereditaments to the same belonging, also of the park commonly called "le little parke" or "Torbocke little park," in Torbocke, adjacent to the said capital messuage [here the places are set out at great length] to the uses expressed in certain Indentures dated 7 Dec., 12 James [1614], and made between the said Richard Mollineux of the one part, and Thomas Carrell, Knt., of Shepley, in Sussex, of the other part, viz. as to all those lands, tenements, and premises whereof the said Fine was levied (the lands, tenements, tithes, and premises in Alkar excepted) to the use of Richard Mollineux (now Knt. and Bart., and then Knt.), son and heir apparent of Richard Mollineux (named in the commission), for life, without impeachment of waste ; and after his decease to the use of Mary Carrell, whom Richard (the son) then intended to take to wife, and her assigns for life, for and in recompense of part of her dower. As to the lands, tenements, tithes, and other the premises in Alkar, to the use of Richard Mollineux and his assigns during the joint lives of the said Richard (the father) and Richard (the son) ; and upon the determination of these estates, then as to the premises in Alkar to the use of Mary Carrell and her assigns for life, in recompense of the residue of her jointure and in full satisfaction of her dower. And upon the determination of the several uses and estates so limited to Richard (the father), Richard (the son), and Mary, to the use of Richard (the son) for life, without impeachment of waste ; and after his decease, and upon the determination of the several estates aforesaid, then successively in tail male to the use of his 1st to his 7th and every other son in tail male, and for default, then successively to the use of divers other persons in the said Indenture named, and to the use of their heirs male ; and for default to the use of the right heirs of Richard Mollineux (the son) for ever. By virtue of which Fine, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Richard Mollineux (the son) and Richard Mollineux (the father) were respectively seised of the premises, with remainder and reversion thereof as aforesaid.

Richard Mollineux (the father) being also seised of the residue of the premises, another Fine was levied at Lancaster on Monday in the 4th week of Lent between William Norreis [K.B.], John Byron the younger, Knt., William Towse, Serjeant at Law, William Ford, Edward Michell, and William Ireland, Esqs., plaintiffs, and Richard Mollineux, deforciant, of the residue of the premises (except the offices aforesaid, and other the premises whereof the Fine above mentioned was levied, 3 parts of the manor of Maghall (in 4 parts divided), lately purchased by Richard Mollineux of Richard Hulme and Edmund Hulme, lying in Sefton, Thornton, Downelytherland, &c., and the mansion with the demesne lands thereto belonging commonly called "Littlewood" and "Leighouses," situate in Ulneswalton) by the name of the manors of Sefton, Thornton, Lytherland, Ayntree, &c. ; 8,000 messuages, 1,000 tofts, 40 mills [here set out at great length] to the following uses, viz. as to all those manors and lordships of Ellall, Fishwick, Euxton, Eccleston juxta Croston, Heskin, and Kirkby, and as to such parts of the manors of Alkar and Torbocke, whereof no other use is limited, and as to all those messuages, mills, lands, &c. in Ellall, Fishwicke, Euxton, Eccleston, Kirkby, Heskin, Ulmeswalton, Cronton, and Whiston, or any of them, wherein no use has before been limited (except as before excepted), to the use of Richard Mollineux for life, without impeachment of waste ; and after his decease then to the use of William Norreis, Knt., John Byron, Knt., and William Ireland, their executors and assigns, for the term of 10 years, for the purpose of raising the sum of £1,000 a piece for the preferment in marriage of Julia and Margaret, two of the daughters of the said Richard ; and after the determination of the said term then to the use of Richard Mollineux and his heirs male by Mary. And in case he should have no issue male living at the time of his death, but should have issue one or more daughters, then to the use of William Towse, William Ford, and Edward Michell, and their executors for 60 years, if within that term the sum of £4,000 be not paid to such one or more daughters by the heirs male or the executors or administrators of Richard Mollineux (named in the commission), or by the executors or administrators of Richard Mollineux (the son). And, in case the said Richard should have no issue male, but 2 or more daughters at the time of his death, then to the use of the said Feoffees for the term aforesaid, if during that term the sum of £6,000 be not paid to such 2 or more daughters equally in like manner as above : the several payments to be made in the Inner Temple Hall, London. Nevertheless the estate limited to the said Feoffees in the last-mentioned premises was to be in trust for the benefit and use of such daughter or daughters, as the case should require ; and, upon the determination thereof, then to the use of Richard Mollineux (named in the commission) and his heirs male ; and for default to the use of the heirs male of the body of William Mollineux, then deceased, late father of the said Richard ; and for default to the use of the right heirs of Richard Mollineux (the son) for ever. As to the manor of Kirkby, and such parts of the manors of Alkar and Torbocke, and of other the premises in Kirkby, Torbocke, Alkar, Cronton, and Whiston, limited to William Norreis, John Byron, and William Ireland, after the determination of the term aforesaid, to the use of Richard Mollineux

(the son) for life, without impeachment of waste ; and after his decease then successively in tail male to the use of his 1st and 2nd sons ; and for default to the successive uses of divers other persons in the said Indenture named ; and on the determination thereof to the use of Richard Mollineux (the son), his heirs and assigns, for ever. As to the manors and lordships of Sefton, Thornton, Downe Litherland, Ayntree, and Kirkdall, and the moiety of the manors of Ince Blundell, Northend, Mellinge, and Lydiat, and the 4th part of the manor of Maghull and Aughton, the advowsons of the Churches of Sefton and Walton, and of all the messuages, lands, rent, reversions, &c. in Sefton, Thornton, &c. to the use of Richard Mollineux for life, without impeachment of waste ; and after his decease to the use of Richard Mollineux (the son) for life in like manner ; and after his death successively in tail male to the use of his 1st to his 5th son ; and for default to the use of divers other persons in the said Indenture named and their heirs male ; and for default to the use of the right heirs of Richard Mollineux (the son) and their assigns for ever. As to all those messuages, rents, reversions, &c. whereof Richard Mollineux was seised as aforesaid in Charnocke Richard, Leyland, Farrington, Heapey, Heath Charnocke, Cuerden, Whittle in le Woodes, Ribbleton, Brocholes, Preston in Amoundernes, Lancaster, and elsewhere within the county of Lancaster whereof no uses or estates were before in that Inquisition limited, to the use of Richard Mollineux for life, without impeachment of waste ; and after his decease, to the use of Richard Mollineux (the son) and his heirs male ; and for default to the use of Richard Mollineux (named in the commission) and his heirs male ; and for default to the use of the heirs male of William Mollineux ; and for default to the use of Richard Mollineux (the son), his heirs and assigns for ever. By virtue of which Fine and Indenture, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Richard Mollineux was seised of the premises aforesaid as of freehold for life, with remainder and reversion thereof as aforesaid, and he died so seised 24 Feb. last past [1622–23] ; Richard Mollineux, Knt. and now Bart., is his son and next heir, and is now aged 29 years and more.

Julia Mollineux, after the levying of the Fine last mentioned and before the death of Richard Mollineux, married Thomas

Walmisley, Knt., and her marriage portion was paid in full ; but Margaret Mollineux is still unmarried, and her marriage portion has not been paid, nor any part thereof. William Norreis, John Byron, and William Ireland have not levied nor had, of the rents and issues of the lands so limited to them, the sum of £1,000, nor any part of the marriage portion of the said Margaret.

his death was seised in fee of 1 capital messuage, 1 garden, 1 orchard, 15 acres of land, 5 acres of meadow, 10 acres of pasture, and 1 water-mill in Gressingham; also of 2 other messuages, 2 cottages, 4 gardens, 6 acres of land, 2 acres of meadow, and 4 acres of pasture in Gressingham, in the tenure of Edward Birkett, Mathew Sotherne, William Dickenson, and Thomas Jackson,

The messuages, lands, and other the premises in Gressingham are held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, by knight's service, viz. by the 60th part of a knight's fee and 12d. yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 20s.

William Parker died so seised 24 July, 20 James [1622]; Edward Parker is his son and next heir, and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 40 years and more.

Thomas Gillibrand, of Peele, Gentleman.

Vol. xxvi.
No. 51.
9 Sept.
1623.

Inquisition taken at Bolton in le mores, 9 Sept., 21 James [1623], before Edward Rigby, Esq., Escheator, after the death of Thomas Gillibrand, late of le Peele, in Astley,<sup>1</sup> gentleman, by the oath of Roger Sharples, James Crompton, Ellis Crompton, John Marshe, Robert Bolton, Roger Grundie, Peter Walmisley, Richard Aspinall, John Davenport, Gabriel Eaton, Thomas Leigh, Edward Greenhalgh, John Brooke, Lawrence Horrockes, Robert Bordman, Arthur Bromeley, Edmund Brooke, and Thomas Lighthowne, gentlemen, who say that Thomas Gillibrand, long before his death, was seised in fee of 1 capital messuage in Astley called "the Peele," with the houses, buildings, gardens, and turbaries to the same belonging; of 18 closes of land in Astley; also of 9 other messuages, 11 cottages, 1 dovecot, 1 water-mill, 20 gardens, 15 orchards, 160 acres of land, 200 acres of pasture, and 60 acres of moor, moss, and turbary in Astley.

Being so seised, by deed, dated 30 June, 10 James [1612], he granted all the premises to John Minshall, of Mynshall, co. Chester, Esq., and John Urnston, of Westleigh, co. Lanc., gent., to hold to them and their heirs for ever to the several uses declared in a certain schedule to the said deed annexed. [Here the schedule is set out at great length in English.] In consideration of the sum of £120 paid to Thomas Gellibrand by Thomas Gellibrand his 2nd son, as also for the preferment of his daughters and younger children, and the daughters of Geoffrey Gellibrand, his eldest son, lately deceased, and for the establishing of his hereditaments to remain in his "name and bloode," and for the maintenance of such wife as the feoffor thereafter might marry, and for the making of a jointure for Alice, the then wife of Thomas Gellibrand (the son); Thomas Gellibrand (named in the writ) made the said Deed of Feoffment to the uses therein contained, and declares, viz. that John Mynshall and John Urneston and their heirs should stand seised of all the premises, and of the reversion thereof, to the use of Thomas Gellibrand and his assigns for life without impeachment of waste; and after his decease, as to the 3rd part (in 3 equal parts to be divided) of all the premises (those messuages, cottages, lands, tithes, and hereditaments which the said Thomas Gellibrand had power thereby to lease for 3 lives, or 21 years, in possession or reversion during the time only of such leases as should be made thereof respectively only excepted), and also as to the 3rd equal part of all the rents, boons, and services to be reserved upon every such lease to the use of Thomas Gellibrand (the son) and Alice his wife for their lives, in the name of jointure of the said Alice. And as to the said 3rd part of the premises (except as before excepted), after the decease of Thomas Gellibrand (the son) and Alice, to the use of the heirs male of Thomas (the son); and for default to the use of the right heirs of Thomas Gellibrand (the feoffor); and for default to the use of Thomas Gellibrand, bastard son of Thomas (the son) and his heirs male; and for default to the use of the right heirs of Thomas (the feoffor) for ever. And that the feoffees should stand seised of the other 2 parts and all the rest and residue of the premises after the decease of Thomas Gellibrand (the feoffor) to the use of Thomas (the son) and his heirs male; and for default to the use of the heirs male of Thomas (the feoffor); and for default to the use of Thomas Gellibrand (the bastard) and his heirs male; and for default to the use of the right heirs of Thomas Gellibrand (the feoffor) for ever. Provided that Thomas (the son) and his heirs male, the heirs male of Thomas (the feoffor), and Thomas (the bastard) and his heirs male, or such of them to whom the premises aforesaid, or any part of them might happen to fall, should pay to Jane and Elizabeth Gellibrand, daughters of the said Geoffrey Gellibrand, deceased, the sum of £100, equally to be divided between them. Should either of them happen to die unmarried, then the said sum to be paid to the survivor of them. And if either of them should have died unmarried, then the sum of 40 marks only to be paid to the survivor; and for default of such payment the said feoffees and their heirs to stand seised of all the premises (except as before excepted) to the use of the said Jane and Elizabeth until such time as they should have received out of the issues and profits of the premises the sum of £100 over and above all charges and expenses. And after the satisfaction of the said sum to stand seised of the premises and of the reversions thereof, to the uses and persons thereinbefore limited after the death of Thomas Gellibrand. And if the premises aforesaid, or any part thereof, for default of heirs male of Thomas (the son), should happen to come to any heir male of Thomas (the feoffor), that then such heir and his heirs male should pay to the daughter or daughters of Thomas (the son) (if any) the sum of 100 marks equally to be divided amongst them if more than one; and in default of such payment within two years after the premises should accrue to such heir, the feoffees to stand seised thereof to the use of such daughter or daughters of Thomas Gellibrand (the son) until such payment should be duly made; and after the said payment to such use as by Thomas (the feoffor) thereinbefore was appointed. And if the premises should happen to come to Thomas Gellibrand (the bastard) and his heirs male or their assigns, then he or they should pay or cause to be paid to the said Jane and Elizabeth the sum of £80 equally to be divided between them, and to Mary, Ellen, and Margaret, daughters of Thomas Gellibrand (the feoffor), the sum of £120 equally to be divided amongst them within two years after the premises should so accrue to him or them, and for default of such payment the said feoffees to be seised of the premises to the use of the said

Jane and Elizabeth, and of Mary, Ellen, and Margaret, until they should have received the said sums of money, and after such payment made then to such use as thereinbefore was appointed. And if the said premises should come to the said Jane and Elizabeth Gellibrand, or to either of them, or their or either of their heirs or assigns, that they should pay to the daughter and daughters of Thomas Gellibrand (the feoffor) £100 equally to be divided amongst them, and to all and every the daughter and daughters of the said Thomas (the son), the like sum of £100 equally to be divided amongst them within the space of two years, and for default of such several payments, then the feoffees to stand seised as aforesaid to the use of all the said daughters both of Thomas (the feoffor) and Thomas (the son) until such time as they should have received such several sums; and then to the further uses thereinbefore appointed. Provided that it should be lawful for Thomas Gellibrand (the feoffor) to assure and convey the use of any part of the premises, not exceeding the 3rd part thereof, to the use of such wife or wives as the said Thomas (the feoffor) might thereafter marry, for their lives only. Also that it should be lawful for him to lease the use of all the said tithes, and of the mill called "Cowdall milne," and of certain parcels of land therein specified, for 21 years or under, to commence after the death of Thomas Gellibrand (the feoffor), and to lease the use of any of the premises which usually theretofore had been leased or let to farm (the moiety of 1 messuage and tenement then in the possession of one John Birchall or his assigns only excepted) for three lives, or for any number of years determinable upon three lives, or for 21 years or under in possession and not in reversion. And also that it should be lawful for Thomas Gellibrand (the son) and his heirs male, and for every other person to whom any estate was thereby limited, to make jointures to his wife of the 3rd part (in three parts to be divided), of the premises (except as before excepted) for the life only of such wife in lieu of dower. And that it should be lawful for the said Thomas to make leases of any part of the premises except the demesne lands belonging to the capital messuage called "the Peele." Provided that if Thomas Gellibrand (the son) should have an heir male or heir male apparent, then it should be lawful for him to demise two parts (in three parts to be divided) of the premises for 21 years to commence after the death of the said Thomas (the feoffor) and Thomas (the son) if any heir of the said Thomas (the son) after his decease, or of Thomas (bastard), or any heir male of his body, or any of them should so long live. And, lastly, it was agreed by all the parties that if the said feoffment should not be perfectly executed for want of Livery and Seisin, or otherwise, before the Feast of our Lord God then next coming, that then Thomas Gellibrand, his heirs and assigns, should from and after the said Feast, for the considerations aforesaid, stand seised of all premises to such uses as were thereinbefore limited and appointed; as by the said deed and schedule shown to the Jurors in evidence more fully appears. By virtue whereof, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Thomas Gellibrand (the father) was seised of the premises aforesaid as of freehold for life, with remainders thereof as aforesaid, and he died seised thereof 14 June last past [1623].

The capital messuage and other the messuages and premises (except 2 acres of land, parcel of the aforesaid 160 acres in Astley and the water-mill aforesaid) were held of the late Abbot and Convent of Cokersand, lately dissolved, before the dissolution thereof, in socage, viz. by fealty and 2s. yearly rent, but of whom they are now held the Jurors know not, and they are worth per ann. (clear) £8. The 2 acres of land before excepted are held of Adam Morte, gentleman, in socage, viz. by fealty and service and 18d. yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 4s. The mill aforesaid is held of the King as of his Duchy of Lancaster, as of his Honour of Widnes, in free and common socage, viz. by fealty and the yearly rent of one farthing for "Castle ward" and making suit at the Court of the manor aforesaid, and they are worth per ann. (clear) 6s. 8d.

Jane and Elizabeth Gillibrand, daughters of Geoffrey Gellibrand, deceased, are the next heirs of Thomas Gellibrand, and are aged respectively at the time of taking this Inquisition, Jane 20 years and more, and Elizabeth 16 years and more.

debt which he (the testator) owed to some other person for her use. And he willed that Alice his wife should have to her and her assigns during her life, for her jointure and in lieu of dower, all the lands and hereditaments limited unto her for her jointure in an Indenture made between him (the testator) of the one part and William Waringe and Thomas Beesley of the other part, dated 29 March, 1623. And he gave to his friends, Richard Shuttleworth, of Barton, in Amoundernes, Esq., Cuthbert Hesketh, of Gousenargh, gentleman, and William Beesley, of Brookes, gentleman, and their heirs, all the aforesaid premises after the respective deaths of his said mother-in-law and wife. And he gave to the said Richard, Cuthbert, and William all other his lands and hereditaments whatsoever in the county of Lancaster (except the "Barbonfeildes" and "Tinkler feild") from the day of his death until from the issues thereof, and from his personal estate, his debts should be paid; and afterwards until his brothers' and sisters' portions, given unto them by his said father's will (being £20 a piece), should be paid. And that in the meantime with the said issues maintain with meat, drink, lodging, schooling, and apparel his (the testator's) little son George Midghall. And after his said debts and his said brothers' and sisters' portions should be paid as aforesaid, he willed that all his said lands, &c. (except before excepted) should remain unto his said son George Midgall and his heirs male, and for default to the heirs male of his said late father, and lastly to his own right heirs for ever. And he thereby constituted the said Cuthbert Hesketh and Alice his (the testator's) said wife his executors.

The messuages and other the premises in Barton are held of Richard Shuttleworth, Esq., in right of Fleetwood Shuttleworth, his wife, as of her manor of Barton in free and common socage, viz. by fealty and the yearly rent of 2s., and are worth per ann. the pishe Church or Chappell of Colne amongst the bodies of the ffaithfull therein buried." His freehold land at Townehowse he had already by deed dated 26 June, "in the xliijth yeare of the reaigne of Elizabeth of famous memorie late Queene of Englaund" [1602], granted unto Henry Walton, of Barkerhowse, and Roger Pollard, son and heir of George Pollard, of Hapton, in the county of Lancaster, yeomen, and their heirs for ever, to hold the said lands and all other the premises in the said deed mentioned, to them and their heirs for ever, to such uses as in a certain schedule annexed to the said deed are expressed, viz. as to a 3rd part of the said premises to the use of him (the testator) and Jane his wife for the life of the survivor of them, in the name of the jointure and dower of the said Jane. And as to the other two 3rd parts thereof to the use of him (the testator) for life, and after his decease and the decease of Lettice, his (the testator's) mother, then as to the said two 3rd parts thereof, as well as to the other 3rd part thereof, to the use of the testator's sons by the said Jane successively in tail male. And for default to the use of him the said John Mancknolles and his heirs and assigns for ever, or to such other person as he should by will or deed appoint. And whereas by the said deed and schedule it was provided that if he (the testator) should die, and such issue male by the said Jane, his wife, as should inherit the premises by force of the limitations aforesaid should be under the age of 21 years, that then the said Henry Walton and Roger Pollard should stand seised of the said premises to the use of such person as he the said John Mancknolles should by his will or other act appoint until the said heir male should accomplish his age of 28 [sic] years. Therefore he the said John Mancknolles did declare by that his will, and he thereby appointed two parts of the said premises unto Margaret Mancknolles and Ellen Mancknolles his "naturall<sup>1</sup> doughtors," for their preferment, to hold the same to the said Margaret and Ellen, and their assigns, from the day of his decease, and as the same might fall out of dower or feoffment after his death by the death of the said Jane, his wife, or Lettice, his mother, if they or either of them should survive him, until Henry

Mancknolles, his son and heir, should accomplish his age of 24 years, or would have accomplished his age of 24 years if he should happen to die, "wth god forbid." And whereas theretofore he the said John Mancknolles had surrendered into the hands of the King, by James ffeldes, customary tenant, his copyhold messuage and 10 acres of land at Townehowse aforesaid, in the manor of Colne, of the yearly rent of 3s. 4d., in the occupation of him the said John Mancknoles and of the said Lettice, his mother, to the use of the said Henry Walton, of Barkerhowse, and the said Roger Pollard, son and heir of the said George Pollard, and of their heirs to the intent that thereupon they should be feoffees fined and seised to such uses as he the said John Mancknolles should declare by his will; therefore he the said John Mancknolles, touching the said copyhold messuage and all other the premises in the said surrender named did declare by that his will the uses thereof to be as follows:—First, that the said Henrie Walton and Roger Pollard and their heirs should be feoffees fined and seised in trust according to the custom of the manor of Colne, of 2 parts of the said messuage, and the said 10 acres, &c. from his decease, to the use of the said Margaret and Ellen Mancknolls and their assigns for their preferment, and as the same 2 parts or any part of the last-named premises might happen to fall out of jointure or use after his death, by the death of Jane, his said wife, or Lettice, his mother, for and until Henry Mancknolles, his said son and heir, should accomplish the age of 24 years, or would have accomplished the same if he should happen to die before that age. And the testator gave the reversion and remainder of all the said copyhold premises as the particular estates thereof should determine to the use of the said Henry Mancknolles his heirs and assigns for ever. And concerning his worldly goods, he willed that all his debts should be first paid out of the same, and then his said goods should be divided into 3 equal parts, whereof Jane, his wife, should have 1 part as in her own right, and the 2nd part should remain equally among his said daughters; and out of the 3rd part, after his funeral expenses discharged, he gave 20s. to John Mancknolles, son of Lawrence Mancknolles, his (the testator's) brother. And he gave to every child that he was godfather to 12d.; and he gave to Henry Mancknolles, his son and heir, his "great meale Arcke, and all Troughes of Stone to bee and Remaine heirlombes" to his house. And he made the said Margaret Mancknolles and Ellen Mancknolles the executors of that his will, and he appointed Lawrence Lugen, of Southfield, his uncle, and Lawrence Mancknolles, his brother, the supervisors thereof.

The message, lands, and other the premises in Mersden are held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, in capite by knight's service, and are worth per ann. (clear) 13s. 4d.

John Mancknolles died being so seised 22 Dec. last past [1623]. Henry Mancknolles is his son and next heir, and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 19 years 9 months and 7 days.

Roger Nowell, of Whalley, Gentleman.

ing uses, viz. as to all the messuages, lands, and other the premises in Whalley, to the use of Roger Nowell, gent., then son and heir apparent of him the said Roger (named in the writ) and Elizabeth, then his wife, for the life of the said Roger (the father) if the said Roger (the son) and Elizabeth his wife or either of them should so long live ; and afterwards to the use of Katherine, then wife of the said Roger (the father) for life ; and afterwards successively to the use of the said Elizabeth, Roger (the son), and Roger (the father) for the terms of their lives ; and afterwards to the use of the heirs male of Roger (the son) by Elizabeth ; and for default to the use of the heirs male of Roger (the father) ; and for default successively in tail male to the use of John 2nd son and Robert 3rd son of the said Roger (the father) ; and for default to the use of Roger (named in the writ) and his heirs male ; and, lastly, to the use of his right heirs for ever. As to the manor of Read and the messuages, lands, tenements, and other the premises in Reade ; the 3rd part of the manor of Harwood and other the premises in Harwood ; the messuages, land, tenements, and other the premises in Church and Dinckley ; the messuages, lands, tenements, and other the premises in East Bradford, Wakefield, Loftus, Wentbridge, Thorp, Audlin, Darrington, and Owsthorpe, in the county of York, to the use of Roger Nowell (the father) for life ; and afterwards to the use of Roger Nowell (the son) and his heirs male ; and for default successively in tail male to the use of the said John, Robert, Roger (the father) and his (the father's) right heirs for ever. In which said Indenture it is provided and agreed by the parties thereto that [Here the Indenture is set out in English] if Roger Nowell (the son) should die in the lifetime of his father, having one or more sons or daughters, then the premises were limited to the further use that every such daughter and her assigns should from the time of the decease of the survivor of the said Roger Nowell (the father), and Roger Nowell (the son) receive and take one annual rent of £20 issuing out of the said hereditaments and premises (the several estates for lives of Katherine and Elizabeth, and of such wife as Roger (the father) should leave at the time of his death, and such the terms and estates for lives or years as should be thereafter made by or according to any proviso or power in those presents mentioned excepted) until each daughter or her assigns should have received the sum of £50 each, for their maintenance and preferment in marriage. Also to the further use that if Roger (the son) should die having more sons than one, that then every of the younger sons respectively after the decease of the survivor of the said Roger (the father) and Roger (the son) should annually receive during their several lives a yearly rent of £6 : 13 : 4 issuing out of the said hereditaments (except as before excepted). And for default of payment of any of the said sums, then the said younger son or sons, daughter or daughters, might respectively distrain therefor in all the said hereditaments so charged therewith as aforesaid (except as before excepted) until they should be paid the said yearly rents and the arrears thereof, as by the said Indenture, shown to the Jurors, more fully appears.

Roger Nowell (named in the writ) was likewise seised in fee of 1 messuage and 8 acres of land, meadow, and pasture in Simonstone.<sup>1</sup>

Afterwards, viz. 3 Jan., 14 James [1616-17], the said Elizabeth died at Whalley. After that, by an Indenture [Here set out in English] dated at Whalley 19 Oct., 17 James [1619], and made between Roger Nowell, of the Reade, Esq., Katherine his wife, and Roger his son and heir apparent, of the one part, and Hamlet Hyde, of Northbury, co. Chester, Esq., of the other part; in consideration of a marriage intended to be had and solemnized between the said Roger Nowell (the son) and Katherine Hulton, widow (sister of the said Hamnet [sic] Hyde), and for other considerations therein mentioned, it was agreed between the parties as follows:—FIRST, the said Roger (the father), Katherine, and Roger (the son) covenanted with the said Hamnet Hyde that they and the heirs and assigns of the said Roger (the father) should before the feast day of Easter then next ensuing, at the costs of the said Roger (the son) by Fine, Feoffment, or Recovery with vouchers, or otherwise, convey and assure to the said Hamnet Hyde and Edward Vawdrey of Riddings, co. Chester, or to the survivor of them, and their heirs, all those hereditaments in Whalley, and the reversions and remainders thereof, whereof the said Roger, Katherine and Roger, or any of them had at any time theretofore any estate of inheritance in possession, reversion, remainder, or otherwise, by force of any assurance theretofore made by one Gilbert Moreton, of Parkeside, co. Lanc., gentleman, deceased, uncle of the said Katherine. And that the said Hamnet and Edward and their heirs should be seised of all the premises aforesaid to the use of Roger Nowell (the son) and the said Katherine Hulton during the life of the said Roger Nowell (the father), if they or either of them should so long live; and after the determination of that estate then to the use of the said Katherine, then the wife of the said Roger (the father), and her assigns for life, without impeachment of waste, as fully as the same did accrue unto her from the said Gilbert Morton, her uncle, and not in any way in the name, or as part or parcel of any jointure or dower, or as in bar or recompense of her title of dower unto or in any of the hereditaments of her said husband in any wise belonging; and after her decease to the use of the said Katherine Hulton, the intended wife of Roger (the son), for life; and after her decease to the use of Roger Nowell (the son) for life; and after his decease to the use of Roger Nowell (the father) for life, without impeachment of waste; and after his decease to the use of the heirs male of the body of the said Roger (the son); and for default successively in tail male to the use of John, 2nd, and Robert, 3rd son of the said Roger (the father), to the use of the said Roger (the father) himself, and, lastly, to the use of his right heirs for ever. SECONDLY, the said Roger, Katherine, and Roger agreed to assure and convey in like manner to the said Hamnet Hyde and Edward Vawdrey all the aforesaid hereditaments in Whalley which were theretofore conveyed to the use of the said Roger (the father) and his heirs by one William Halsted, of Ighten Hill Park, co. Lanc.; likewise all those hereditaments in Read theretofore in the several tenures of John Ingham, deceased, John Browne, deceased, and James Sankie, or of their assigns, and then or within the space of one year then last past in the tenure of the said Roger (the son) or of his assigns; and all the hereditaments lastly mentioned and one milne and kilne, together with certain easements to the same appertaining; and 3 closes theretofore in the tenures of William Wignall, Robert Starkie, and Robert Ingham, situate upon some part of the 3 last-mentioned closes, to the use of the said Katherine Hulton and her assigns for life ; and after her decease to the use of Roger Nowell (the son) for life, without impeachment of waste ; and after his decease then to the use of Roger Nowell (the father) for life in like manner ; and after his decease to the use of the heirs male of the body of the said Roger (the son) ; and for default successively in tail male to the use of the aforesaid John, Robert, and Roger (the father) ; and, lastly, to the use of his (the father's) right heirs for ever. AND IT was further agreed by Roger (the father) and Roger (the son) that before the said Feast day of Easter, in manner aforesaid, they would convey to the said Hamnet Hyde and Edward Vawdrey all the capital messuage and mansion house called "Read" or "the Hall of Read," together with all the houses, outhouses, barns, stables, gardens, courts, easements, curtilages, &c. to the said mansion house belonging, and all the demesne lands of the said Roger (the father and son) in Reade ; and all the lands, &c. in Read which then or within the space of one year then last past had been enjoyed as demesne land by Roger Nowell (the father). (Such hereditaments in Read reputed as parts of the demesne lands thereinbefore limited to the use of the said Roger Nowell (the son), Katherine, Roger Nowell (the father), and Katherine Hulton, or any of them ; all the waste grounds in Read aforesaid ; 1 messuage in Reade commonly called the "Lower Hall" or "Smarshall's Farmhold," with the lands thereto belonging, theretofore purchased of one Hamnet Ashton, deceased, and Elizabeth, his wife, or one of them ; 1 parcel of ground in Read, then in the tenure of Henry Hamond or his assigns, theretofore purchased of William Farrington, of Wyreden, Esq. ; 1 other tenement in Reade theretofore, called "Ravenhouse," purchased of John Bradell of Whalley, Esq., with the hereditaments thereunto belonging ; and 1 close of land in Read, commonly called "Foster Field," purchased of Ralph Ashton, of Whalley, Esq., only excepted.) To the use of Roger Nowell (the father) and his assigns for life, without impeachment of waste ; and after his decease to the use of Roger Nowell (the son) and his heirs male ; and for default then successively in tail male to the use of John Nowell, Robert Nowell, Roger Nowell (the father), and lastly to the use of his (the father's) right heirs for ever. Provided that it might be lawful for Roger Nowell (the father) at any time during his life by deed to convey any parts of his demesne lands in Read (being no parcel of the lands and hereditaments limited to Katherine Hulton for life), not exceeding in the yearly value of the pasturage thereof the sum of £40 in the whole, to the use of any wife or wives whom he might at any time thereafter marry, for her and their lives only ; and afterwards to such uses as thereinbefore were appointed. Provided, nevertheless, that if the said Katherine, then wife of Roger Nowell (the father), should survive her husband (whereby divers of the said lands and hereditaments, then late the lands and inheritance of the said Gilbert Morton, should belong unto her), that then and from thenceforth the said Hamnet Hyde and Edward Vawdrey and their heirs should be seised of 2 closes of land in Read, called the "Brierie Rydines" and the "Upper eies" ; also of a full 3rd part (in 3 parts to be divided) of the capital messuage called "Read Hall," and of all the buildings, orchards, &c. to the same belonging, to the use of Roger Nowell (the son) and Katherine Hulton and their assigns for the life of Katherine Nowell only, and afterwards to the uses before thereby limited. Provided likewise, that if Katherine Hulton should happen to survive both Roger Nowell (the father) and Roger Nowell (the son), then the said Hamnet and Edward should be seised of all the premises (the several estates of Katherine Nowell, Katherine Hulton, and of such woman who at the death of Roger Nowell (the father) should be his wife always excepted) to the further use that the said Katherine should in satisfaction of a yearly rent of £6 payable to one John Nowell alias Shuttleworth for his life out of one close in Read, called "Hough Hey," have during his (John's) life (if she should so long live) a yearly rent of £6 : 13 : 4. Provided always, that whereas by certain Indentures tripartite, dated 1 Nov., 2 James [1604], and made between Roger Nowell (the father) and Katherine his wife of the first part, Roger Nowell (the son) of the second part, and Richard Fleetwood, of Culwich, co. Stafford, Esq., of the third part, one yearly rent of £20 a piece was assured to every daughter of the said Roger (the son) in case he should happen to die in his father's lifetime having one or more sons and daughters, to be received annually by such daughter after the death of the survivor of Roger Nowell (the father and son) to be issuing (amongst other lands) out of the lands thereinbefore limited to the use of Katherine Hulton, payable yearly during such term until such daughters should have received the sum of £50 each. If, therefore, the said Katherine or her assigns should be at any time thereafter by way of distress, or otherwise, molested concerning the premises so limited to her use in respect of any of the said yearly rents so belonging to or to be claimed by such said daughters, that then the said Hamnet Hyde and Edward Vawdrey, and such of them to whom the said intended assurances should happen to be made, and their heirs should be seised of all the said premises (except as before excepted) to the further use that the said Katherine should yearly from thenceforth receive out of all the said lands (except as before excepted) one yearly rent of £20 apiece for such time only and until every such daughter in respect of whose said yearly rent she (the said Katherine) or her assigns should happen to be troubled in any of the premises so limited to her use, should have fully received the sum of £50 (if the said Katherine should so long live). Provided also, that whereas by the said Indentures there was 1 yearly rent charge of £6 : 13 : 4 assured to every of the then younger sons of Roger Nowell (the son) for life issuing (amongst other lands) out of the lands thereinbefore limited to Katherine Hulton; if she should be at any time by way of distress in any way troubled as above, that then the said Hamnet and Edward should be seised of all the premises (except as before excepted) to the intent that the said Katherine might yearly take out of the said premises (except as before excepted) one yearly rent of £6 : 13 : 4 during the several lives of such younger sons. Provided, moreover, that if, after the solemnization of the said marriage between the said Roger Nowell (the son) and Katherine Hulton, he (Roger) should die leaving one, two, or three children, and no more, living and unpreferred in marriage at the time of his decease, that then every such child and its or their assigns should receive out of the said premises (except as before excepted) the sum of £200 a piece. And if after the accomplishment of the said marriage the said Roger Nowell (the son) should die leaving more than 3 children by the said Katherine, living and unpreferred in marriage at the time of his death, then the eldest son of such children should receive out of the said premises (except as before excepted) the sum of £200, and each of the other children in like manner the sum of £100. And Roger Nowell (the son) for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators thereby covenanted with the said Hamnet Hyde, his executors and assigns, that he would pay to Beatrice and Anne Hulton, daughters of the said Katherine Hulton, the sum of 1,000 marks within one year after the day of the decease of William Hulton, of the Parke, co. Lanc., Esq., or within one year after the marriage of Adam Hulton, gent. (his Majesty's ward), son of the said Katherine, whichever should first happen, the sum of £166 : 6 : 8 and the like sum of £166 : 6 : 8 within the space of 2 years after the said death or marriage, the like sum within 3 years, and the like sum within 4 years after the said death or marriage, whichever should first happen, in full satisfaction of the said sum of 1,000 marks, as by the said Indentures, shown to the Jurors in evidence, more fully appears.

Afterwards, on 30 Oct., 17 James [1619], at Whalley, Roger Nowell (the son) married Katherine Hulton, and on 20 Jan., 18 James [1620-21], Katherine, late wife of Roger Nowell (the father), died at Whalley.

After that, in performance of the Indenture last mentioned, a Fine was levied at Lancaster, on Monday, 20 Aug., 19 James [1621], between Hamlet Hyde and Edward Vawdrey, plaintiffs, and Roger Nowell (named in the writ) and Roger Nowell (the son) deforciant, of all the premises aforesaid by the name of 2 messuages, 4 barns, 4 gardens, 2 orchards, 1 dovecot, 300 acres of land, 100 acres of meadow, 200 acres of pasture, and 20 acres of wood in Whalley and Read, as by a transcript of the said Fine, shown to the Jurors, more fully appears. By virtue whereof, and by force of the Statute of Uses, being so seised of the premises limited to him in the manner and form aforesaid, Roger Nowell (the son) died at Whalley 12 Nov., 21 James [1623], having then, by the said Elizabeth, his wife, Roger Nowell, his son and heir, Thomas, Adam, and Richard, his younger sons, and Katherine, Fleetwood, Elizabeth, Anne, Mary, and Frances, his daughters, all of whom are yet alive at Whalley; and having by Katherine, late his wife, George, Ralph, and Henry, his sons, who still survive at Whalley, and are not preferred. Roger Nowell (named in the writ), being seised of the premises limited to him in manner and form aforesaid, according to the form and effect of the several Indentures aforesaid, died at Whalley 30 Jan., 21 James [1623-24]; Roger Nowell, gent., is his kinsman and next heir, viz. son of Roger Nowell (the son), son of Roger Nowell (the father, named in the writ), and was aged 18 years on 13 March last past [1623-24]. Katherine (Hulton) still survives at Whalley.

The manor of Read and other the premises in Read (except 1 messuage called "the Lower Hall," 12 acres of land, and 5 acres of wood, and except 16 acres of land purchased of John Braddill) are held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, in socage by fealty and 9s. 9d. yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 20 marks. The messuage called "Lower Hall" and the land before excepted are held of the King in capite by knight's service and 2s. 4d. yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 32s. The 3rd part of the manor of Great Harwood and other the premises in Great Harwood are held of the King by knight's service and 10d. yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) £10. The 3 acres of land in Church are held of Ralph Rishton, gent., in free socage, and are worth per ann. (clear) 18d. The premises in Dinckley are held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, in free socage by fealty and 9d. yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 26s. 8d. The premises in Owsthorpe and Wakefield, co. York, are held of the King, as of his manor of Wakefield, in free and common socage and by the yearly rent of 11s. 6d., and are worth per ann. (clear) £6 : 13 : 4; the premises in East Bradford are held of the King, as of his manor of Bradford, in free burgage and by the yearly rent of 2s. 8d., and are worth per ann. (clear) 40s. The tenements in Wentbridge are held of the King, as of his Honour of Pontefract (parcel of his Duchy of Lancaster), and are worth per ann. (clear) 20s. The premises in Lofthowse are held of the King, as of his manor of Rodwell (parcel of his Duchy of Lancaster), in free and common socage, and are worth per ann. (clear) 13s. 4d. Of whom or by what service the premises in Thorpe, Awdlinc, and Darrington are held the Jurors know not, and they are worth per ann. (clear) 10s. The messuage, lands, tenements, and other the premises in Whalley are held of the King in capite by knight's service, and are worth per ann. (clear) 40s. The premises in Symonston are held of the King in free and common socage by fealty only, and are worth per ann. (clear) 5s.

John Secome, Gentleman.

Inquisition taken at Wigan, 14 April, 22 James [1624], before Edward Rigby, Esq., Escheator, after the death of John Secome, gentleman, by the oath of Robert Barrowe, William Foster, James Pilkington, William Ormishawe, Richard Turner, Richard Greene, Thomas Bankes, Ralph Ford, Robert Gorton, Nicholas Pynnington, John Vance, Richard Worthington, Peter Langton, John Barker, Thomas Tarleton, Miles Baron, Geoffrey Sherington, and James Langshey, gentlemen, who say that John Secome, long before his death, was seised in fee of 2 messuages, 5 cottages, half a burgage, 30 acres of land, 10 acres of meadow, and 10 acres of pasture in Mellinge,<sup>1</sup> Fazakerley,<sup>2</sup> Walton, Heskin,<sup>3</sup> Downe Holland<sup>1</sup> juxta Halsall and Liverpoole. So seised, by his Will in writing dated 27 Jan. last past [1623-24], he devised 2 parts (in 3 parts to be divided) of all the premises to Ralph Secome, his father, and Robert Fletcher, yeoman, his uncle,<sup>4</sup> for the term of 11 years from the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary then next following, for the education and preferment of John, Margaret, and Katherine Secome, his younger children; and the other 3rd part, residue of the premises, and the remainder of the said 2 parts after the determination of the said term, to Ralph Secome, his eldest son, and his heirs for ever, as by the said Will, shown to the Jurors in evidence, more fully appears.

John Secome died so seised 31 Jan. last past [1623-24], at Overton,<sup>5</sup> after whose death Ralph Secome and Robert Fletcher entered into the said 2 parts of the premises, and were thereof possessed for the term of 11 years. Ralph Secome is the son and next heir of John Secome (named in the writ), and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 15 years 3 months and 14 days.

Mary Pooley, widow, late wife of Richard Pooley, has for the term of her life a yearly rent of £3 : 10 : 0 issuing out of the aforesaid lands and tenements.

One messuage, 1 cottage, 12 acres of land, and 1 acre of meadow in Mellinge (parcel of the premises) are held of Edward Ireland and Robert Mollineux, Esqs., in free and common socage by fealty and the yearly rent of 7*d.*, and they are worth per ann. (clear) 5*s.* Two cottages and 5 acres of land in Mellinge are held of Robert Mollineux in free and common socage by fealty and 10½*d.* yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 2*s.* The 8th part of 1 acre of land in Mellinge is held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, by knight's service, viz. by the 1,000th part of a knight's fee, and is worth per ann. (clear) 6*d.* The lands and tenements in Fazakerley and Walton are held of Robert Fazakerley, gent., in free and common socage by fealty and 18*d.* yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 3*s.* The messuages, cottages, and other the premises in Heskin and Downe Holland are held of Charles Gerrard, Knt., and Richard Sherburne, Esq., in free and common socage by fealty and 1*s.* yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 3*s.* The half of the burgage and other the premises in Liverpoole are held of the King in free burgage by fealty and 3*d.* yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 3*d.*

William Holland, of Sutton, Gentleman.

Inquisition taken at Wigan, 14 April, 22 James [1624], before Edward Rigby, Esq., Escheator, after the death of William Holland, late of Sutton,<sup>1</sup> gentleman, by the oath of the same Jurors, who say that long before the death of William Holland (named in the writ) one Richard Holland, his father, was seised in fee (inter alia) of 1 capital messuage in Sutton, commonly called "the Hall of Sutton," 1 cottage,

1 water-mill, 1 wind-mill, 2 gardens, 2 orchards, and 50 acres of land, meadow and pasture in Sutton.

So seised, by deed dated 29 Oct., 9 James [1611], the said Richard Holland enfeoffed thereof Thomas Lathome, Richard Bower, John Hawerden, and Richard Roughley, to hold to them and their heirs for ever, to the uses specified in certain Indentures dated 10 Oct. then last past [1611], and made between himself of the one part and the said Thomas Lathome, Richard Bower, John Hawerden, and Richard Roughley of the other part, viz. to the use of him the said Richard Holland and his assigns for life; and after his decease to the use of William Holland (named in the writ) and of such other person as should then be the next heir male of the body of the said Richard Holland, for two years; and after the determination of that term to the use of such person or persons for seven years then following as Richard Holland by deed or Will should appoint; and for default of such nomination then to the use of his many<sup>1</sup> younger sons and daughters who should not be preferred in his lifetime; and after the determination of the said term then to the use of William Holland (named in the writ) for life without impeachment of waste; and after his decease then successively in tail male to the use of his 1st and 2nd sons; and for default then to the respective uses of divers other persons named in the said Indenture and their heirs male for life; and after their several deceases, and for default of such issue, then to the use of the right heirs of himself the said Richard Holland for ever. And by the said Indenture it was agreed that it should be lawful for the said William Holland, when he should have actual possession of the premises aforesaid by reason of the said feoffment, by deed or otherwise to assure and demise so much thereof as should not amount to more than a 3rd part thereof (in 3 parts to be divided) to the use of such wife or wives as he should marry, by the name of jointure or dower, for her or their life or lives, as by the said deed, feoffment, and Indenture, shown to the Jurors, in evidence more fully appears. By virtue whereof, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Richard Holland was seised of the premises aforesaid for life, with remainder as aforesaid, and he died being so seised thereof. Anne, his wife, survived him, after whose decease William Holland entered into all the premises aforesaid, and was seised thereof as of freehold for life, with remainder as aforesaid. So seised, he endowed the said Anne Holland of the 3rd part of all the premises aforesaid, by virtue whereof she was seised thereof as of freehold in the name of her dower, with reversion thereof to the said William. She being so seised, and the said William being seised of the other 2 parts of the premises, by Indenture dated 16 Nov., 20 James [1622], and made between himself of the one part and the said Richard Roughley and Thomas Hawerden of the other part, the said William Holland appointed to Margaret, then his wife, after his decease, 2 parts (in 3 parts to be divided) of all the premises aforesaid for life in full satisfaction of her dower, and for the better maintenance and education of his younger children, provided, nevertheless, that if she should marry again after his decease then she should have only half of the said premises so appointed to her, as by the said last-mentioned Indenture shown to the Jurors in evidence more fully appears.

The messuage, lands and tenements in Sutton (except the wind-mill aforesaid) are held of Richard Bold, Esq., as of his manor of Sutton, by knight's service. The wind-mill is held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, by knight's service. All the premises are worth per ann. (clear) 20s.

appears. By virtue whereof and by force of the Statute of Uses Robert Holt was seised of all the premises aforesaid as required by law, with remainder as above said. Afterwards, viz. before the death of Robert Holt, Richard Holt came of age and was then seised in fee tail, to himself and his heirs male, of all the premises aforesaid, with remainder and reversion thereof as aforesaid. They being so respectively seised, a Fine was levied at Lancaster on Monday in the 5th week of Lent, 16 James [1618], between Theophilus Ashton and John Greenchalgh, Esqs., and Ralph Ashton and John Cudworth, gentlemen, plaintiffs, and Richard Holt and Robert Holt, deforciant, of Ashworth Hall, 2 gardens, 2 orchards, 120 acres of land, 40 acres of meadow, 90 acres of pasture, 10 acres of wood in Ashworth and Middleton to the uses expressed in an Indenture tripartite dated 11 March, 16 James [1618-19], and made between Robert Holt of the 1st part, Richard Holt of the 2nd part, and Theophilus Ashton of the 3rd part, viz. as to all that part of Ashworth Hall and the rooms and parcels of land therein specified to the use of Richard Holt and Mary, then his wife (now the wife of John Greenchalgh, Esq.), and their issue male; and for default to the use of the heirs male of Richard Holt; and for default to the use successively of Robert Holt and his heirs male, and of himself and his heirs for ever. As to the residue of all the premises, to the use of Robert Holt and his assigns for life, without impeachment of waste; and after his decease to the use of Richard Holt and his heirs male by Mary; and for default to the use of Richard Holt and his heirs male, with remainder as above. Certain closes should immediately after the levying of the said Fine be charged with a rent-charge of £13 : 6 : 8 to Richard Holt and Mary during the life of Mary, and after her decease to Richard during the life of Robert Holt, with power of distress. And certain closes (except 1 acre and 1 rood of land and 34 falls of land) therein mentioned to be charged with a yearly rent-charge of £5 to Robert and Mary Holt, younger children of Robert Holt, son and heir of Robert Holt (named in the writ), for 11 years then next following if they or any issue of both or either of them should so long live, with power of distress, as by the said Indenture and by a transcript of the Fine, shewn to the Jurors in evidence, this appears.

By virtue of the said Fine and Indenture and by force of the Statute of Uses Richard Holt and Mary, his wife, and Robert Holt (named in the writ) were respectively seised of the premises aforesaid. Robert Holt, being seised of the premises in Butterworth, by deed dated 8 June, 18 James [1620], enfeoffed thereof Theophilus Ashton, John Greenhalgh, Ralph Ashton, and John Cudworth, to hold to them, their heirs and assigns, to the uses expressed in a certain schedule to the said deed annexed, viz. to the use of Robert Holt for life, without impeachment of waste; and after his decease, to the use of Richard Holt and his heirs male by Mary; and for default to the use of the heirs male of Richard Holt; and for default successively to the use of the heirs male of Robert Holt and of his right heirs for ever, with power to Robert Holt to demise all or any of the premises, as by the said Charter and Schedule, shown in evidence to the Jurors, more fully appears. By virtue whereof and by force of the Statute of Uses Robert Holt was seised of all the premises in Butterworth as of freehold for life, with remainders as aforesaid.

Long before his death Robert Holt was seised as of freehold for life of 12 messuages, 3 cottages, 12 gardens, 12 orchards, 200 acres of land, 60 acres of meadow, 100 acres of pasture, 6 acres of wood, and 200 acres of furze and heath in Quick and Saddleworth, in co. York; with remainder to Richard Holt and the heirs male of the body of Robert Holt (his father); with remainder to William, another son of Robert Holt, and his heirs male; with remainder to the heirs of Robert Holt by Agnes, his wife (now deceased); with remainder to the right heirs of Agnes for ever.

Richard Holt and Mary, being so respectively seised, Richard died 14 June, 18 James [1620]; Mary, late his wife and now the wife of John Greenhalgh, still survives at Manchester.

Robert Holt died at Ashworth 31 July last past [1624]; Richard Holt is his kinsman and heir, viz. son and heir of Richard Holt (deceased), son and heir of Robert Holt (deceased), son and heir of Robert Holt (named in the writ), and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 5 years 1 month and 6 days, and no more.

Robert Holt (named in the writ) and Robert Holt, named in a certain Inquisition taken at the Castle at York 2 Aug., 18 James [1620], whereby he was found to be seised of the premises aforesaid in co. York for life, are one and the same person.

The manor, capital messuage, and all the premises in Ashworth, Wostenholme, Bamford, Middleton, Spotland, Marcrofte, Yate, and Cheesden are held of Ralph Ashton, Esq. (now in the custody of the King by reason of his minority) by knight's service and 3s. 4d. yearly rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 40 marks. Of whom the messuages, lands, and other the premises in Butterworth are held the Jurors know not, and they are worth per ann. (clear) 40s. The messuages, lands, and other the premises in Quicke and Saddleworth are held of the King in capite by knight's service, viz. by the 40th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann. (clear) £6 : 13 : 4.

James Lomax, of Pilsworth, Gentleman.

Inquisition taken at Manchester, 3 Sept., 22 James [1624], before Edward Rigby, Esq., Escheator, after the death of James Lomax, late of Pilsworth,<sup>1</sup> gentleman, by the oath of John Leaver, Giles Ainsworth, Thomas Byrom, Peter Holt, Edmund Tetlowe, Edmund Byrom, James Chadwicke, George Milnes, John Alred, Thomas Bolton, Thomas Bromeley, Richard Chorleton, Ralph Hobson, Thomas Owen, John Lomax, Edmund Dicconson, Richard Whitworth, and Richard Grant-ham, gentlemen, who say that James Lomax long before his death was seised in fee of 20 acres of land, 6 acres of meadow, 20 acres of pasture, and 20 acres of moor, moss, furze, and heath in Tormerden, in the town of Hundersfield.<sup>2</sup>

The lands, tenements, and other the premises in Tormerden are held of the King in free and common socage, viz. by fealty only, and not in capite, and are worth per ann. (clear) 20s.

As to the residue of all the premises, to the use of Robert Holt and his assigns for life without impeachment of waste; and after his decease to the use of the said Robert Holt and his assigns until Richard Holt should attain the age of 21 years; and after the determination of such estates to the use of Richard Holt and his heirs male; and for default to the use of Robert Holt and his heirs male; and for default to the use of himself and his heirs for ever. And that it should be lawful for Robert Holt at any time by Indenture to make demises of any part of the premises (those already limited to his own use during the minority of the said Richard; as well as Ashworth Hall and the demesne lands of Ashworth, and the lands then or within six years then last past occupied as part thereof; and the corn-mill of Ashworth excepted), to any person for 21 years in possession and not in reversion, at the yearly rents theretofore payable, as by the said Indenture, shown to the Jurors in evidence, appears. Afterwards, viz. 11 Jan., 8 James [1610-11], by deed dated 20 Dec. of the same year, in fulfilment of a covenant, specified in the Indenture before mentioned, Robert Holt (the grandfather) enfeoffed William Davenport, Knt., Ralph Ashton, John Greenehalgh, and Robert Heywood of all the premises therein specified, to hold to them, their heirs and assigns for ever, to the uses in the said Indenture declared, as by the said deed, likewise shown to the Jurors in evidence, appears. By virtue whereof, and by force of the Statute of Uses, Robert Holt was possessed of all that portion of the premises limited to his use during the minority of Richard Holt, with remainder as above said, as of freehold, for life without impeachment of waste, and of the residue of the premises until the said Richard should attain the age of 21 years, with remainder thereof as aforesaid. Afterwards and before 11 March, 16 James [1618-19], at Ashworth, Richard Holt attained the age of 21 years, and thereupon entered into all the premises aforesaid, and was seised thereof as in fee tail, viz. to himself and his heirs male, with remainder as aforesaid. Robert Holt afterwards, viz. 11 March, 16 James [1618-19], was seised in fee of 12 messuages, 12 gardens, 98 acres of land, 30 acres of pasture, 17 acres of meadow, 5 acres of wood, 50 acres of moor, 50 acres of furze and heath in Butterworth, then lately purchased by him. Afterwards, viz. on the same day, Robert Holt and Richard Holt (being then of full age) being severally seised of all the premises aforesaid, by Indenture made on the said day between Robert Holt and Richard Holt of the one part, and Theophilus Ashton, then of Ratchdall, Esq., of the other part, in consideration of a marriage between Richard Holt and Mary, one of the sisters of the said Theophilus, then already solemnized, and of the marriage portion of £1,000 paid and secured by Theophilus to Robert and Richard Holt, and for the better provision and assurance of a sufficient jointure for the said Mary, and for the maintenance of the issue of Richard and Mary, and for the establishing of all the premises of the said Robert Holt, and for divers other causes, it was agreed that at or before the next Assizes to be held at Lancaster, a Fine should be levied "Sur Cognizance de droit come ceo quils ont de lour done" to Theophilus Ashton, John Greenchalgh, Esqs., and Ralph Ashton and John Cudworth, gentlemen, and their heirs, of all the capital messuage of Ashworth and the lands thereto belonging [here described as above], to the following uses [here given in English] :—As to that part of Ashworth Hall and the rooms and parcels of land therein specified, as before, to the use of Richard Holt and Mary, then his wife, and their heirs male; and for default to the use of the heirs male of the said Richard; and for default to the use of Robert Holt and his heirs male; and for default to the use of Robert Holt and his heirs for ever. As to the residue of all the premises, to the use of Robert Holt and his assigns for life without impeachment of waste; and after his decease to the use of Richard Holt and his heirs male by Mary; and for default to the use of the said Richard and his heirs male; and for default successively to the use of Robert Holt and his heirs male and of his heirs for ever. Provided always that the said Fine should be to such use that certain closes should be charged after the levying of such Fine with the yearly rent-charge of £13 : 6 : 8 to the said Richard and Mary for the life of the said Mary, and after her decease to Richard during the lifetime of Robert Holt, with power of distress. And in like manner certain other closes (except 1 acre and 1 rood of land and 34 falls, part thereof) should be charged with a yearly rent-charge of £5 to Robert and Mary Holt, children of the said Robert Holt (then deceased), for the term of 11 years then next following, if they or either of them or their issue should so long live, with like power of distress.

For the considerations aforesaid, and for the better assurance of the said Fine, Robert Holt agreed that all his messuages, lands, &c. in Butterworth should be conveyed to the said feoffees, to the use of himself (Robert) for life without impeachment of waste; and after his decease to the use of Richard Holt and his heirs male by Mary; and for default to the use of the heirs male of the said Richard; and for default to the use of the heirs male of Robert Holt and of his right heirs for ever. And it was provided that Robert Holt at any time during his life might make any demise of any of the premises in Butterworth for 21 years, for the term of 3 lives, or for any term of years determinable upon 3 lives, so that such leases be in possession and not in reversion. Afterwards a Fine was levied at Lancaster on Monday in the 5th week of Lent, 16 James [1618], between Theophilus Ashton, John Greenehalgh, Esqs., Ralph Ashton and John Cudworth, gentlemen, plaintiffs, and Richard Holt and Robert Holt, deforcients, of the capital messuage called Ashworth Hall, 2 gardens, 2 orchards, 120 acres of land, 40 acres of meadow, 90 acres of pasture, and 10 acres of wood in Ashworth and Middleton, to the uses mentioned and expressed in a certain Indenture tripartite, dated 11 March, 16 James [1618-19], and made between Robert Holt of the first part, Richard Holt of the second part, and Theophilus Ashton of the third part, viz. of all the portion of the said capital messuage of Ashworth and the rooms and parcels of land therein specified as before, to the use of Richard Holt and Mary, then his wife, and now the wife of John Greenehalgh, Esq., and the heirs male of Richard by Mary; and for default to the use of the heirs male of the body of the said Richard; and for default successively to the use of Robert Holt and his heirs male, and of himself and his heirs for ever. As to the residue of all the premises, to the use of Robert Holt and his assigns for life without impeachment of waste; and after his decease to the use of Richard Holt and his heirs male by Mary, with remainders as aforesaid. Certain closes were charged with rent-charges of £13: 6: 8 and £5 as above, as by the Indenture last-mentioned and by a transcript of the Fine, shown to the Jurors in evidence, more fully appears.

Robert Holt, the younger, and Mary, his sister, are yet alive at Manchester.

On 8 June, 18 James [1620], by deed dated the same day, for the considerations mentioned in the Indenture of 11 March [1618-19], Robert Holt confirmed to Theophilus Ashton, John Greenehalgh, Ralph Ashton, and John Cudworth all his premises in Butterworth, to hold to them their heirs and assigns to the uses declared in a schedule annexed to the said deed of feoffment, viz. to the use of Robert Holt for life without impeachment of waste; and after his decease to the use of Richard Holt and his heirs male by Mary, with remainders as above, with power for the said Robert to demise as above. By virtue whereof and by force of the Statute of Uses Richard Holt and Mary, his wife, were seised in fee as of freehold for their lives, and Richard as of fee tail to himself and his heirs by Mary, of all that portion of Ashworth Hall and other the premises limited to their use, with remainder as above said. And Robert Holt was seised as of freehold for life of the residue of all the premises, and of all the premises in Butterworth, with remainder as aforesaid.

Richard Holt long before his death was seised in fee of 5 acres of land in Wolstenholme, in the parish of Ratchdall, and he died seised thereof 14 June, 18 James [1620]. Richard Holt, gentleman, is the son and heir of Richard Holt, and at the time of his father's death was aged 11 months and 19 days and no more.

Robert Holt, so seised as aforesaid, died at Ashworth 31 July last past [1624].

Mary, now wife of John Greenehalgh, and late wife of Richard Holt, is yet alive at Brandelsholme.

Long before the death of Richard Holt one Roger, son of Alexander de Middletuna, gave all the messuages, lands, and other the premises in Ashworth by the name of "tota Ashwortha" to one Geoffrey, his kinsman, as by a certain Charter, shown in evidence to the Jurors upon the taking of this Inquisition, appears, the tenor whereof follows in these words:—

"Ratū sit et . . . . . vniūsis has literas videntibus vel audientibus et francis et anglicis tam p̄sentibus q̄m futuř me Roger fit Aleř de Midletuna Galfrido Cognato meo filio Robti decani de Willor totam Ashwortham cū omni

Before the death of Richard Holt one Richard Ashton, Esq., was seised in fee of the manor of Middleton, held of Queen Elizabeth, as of her Duchy of Lancaster, in capite by knight's service. Robert Holt was likewise then seised in fee of the aforesaid premises in Ashworth which were then held of the said Richard Ashton by the yearly rent of 3s. 4d. They being so severally and respectively seised, the said Richard Ashton, together with one John Ashton, then parson of the Parish Church of Middleton, and Edmund<sup>1</sup> Hopwood, then of Hopwood, Esq., on 20 Oct., 3 Eliz. [1561], became bound to Robert Holt by a bond [set out in full] in £200, on condition that if Richard Ashton before the feast of Easter then next ensuing at the request of Robert Holt, his heirs or assigns, should make a sufficient estate in fee simple to the use of the said Robert, his heirs and assigns, with one release upon the same, at the costs of the said Robert, of all the premises of Richard Ashton in Ashworth, with all knight's fees, wards, marriages, and reliefs to the premises or any part thereof appertaining, to be conveyed to Robert Holt, his heirs and assigns for ever, discharged of all estates, merchant statutes of the staple, rents, arrearages of rent, and all other charges whatsoever, delivering also to him (Robert) all deeds and writings concerning the premises, and acquitting him from all rents that should be due out of the said premises to dame Katherine Radcliffe, then wife of Sir William Radcliff, Knt., and then late the wife of Richard Ashton, then late of Middleton, Esq., deceased. And further, if Richard Ashton at all and every time thereafter within the space of 3 years at the request of the said Robert, his heirs and assigns, should make and convey to him (Robert) and his heirs such further assurance of the premises then the said bond to be void, as by the said bond, shown to the Jurors in evidence, more fully appears. Afterwards, 30 Oct., 3 Eliz. [1561], by deed, Richard Ashton granted and released to Robert Holt [here the deed is set out] all the premises in Middleton for the sum of £80, to hold to him and his heirs for ever to the use of Robert Holt, his heirs and assigns, for ever; yielding yearly to Richard Ashton and his heirs one pair of gloves, if demanded; also suit of Court of the manor of Middleton, as by the said writing, shown to the Jurors in evidence, appears. On 4 Nov., 3 Eliz. [1561], by writing, Richard Ashton released to Robert Holt all his premises in Ashworth, as by the said deed appears [here set out], to the use of the said Robert, his heirs and assigns, for ever, so that neither Richard Ashton nor his heirs might claim any right or estate therein at any future time, but should be for ever excluded from any claim or title therein by the said deed, provided that Robert Holt, his heirs and assigns, do suit at the Court of Richard Ashton and his heirs, and do pay yearly one pair of gloves, as specified in a certain deed made between Richard Ashton of the one part and Robert Holt of the other part, as by the said writing, shown to the Jurors in evidence, appears. Robert Holt did not pay the said rent of 3s. 4d. to Richard Ashton, but afterwards he paid to Richard Ashton, Knt., then son and heir of the said Richard, to whom the manor of Middleton descended after his father's death, one pair of gloves.

Robert Holt was likewise essoined by Richard Thorneley at a Court Baron held for the manor of Middleton, 18 James [1620-21]. "Et si sup totā materiā p<sup>r</sup>d" the capital messuage, lands, and other the premises in Ashworth are held of the King, as of his Duchy of Lancaster, by knight's service, then the Jurors say that all these premises were held of the King by knight's service in capite. "Et si sup totā materiā p<sup>r</sup>d" the capital messuage, land, and other the premises in Ashworth are held of Ralph Ashton, Esq., kinsman and heir of Richard Ashton, Knt., viz. son and heir of Richard Ashton, son and heir of Richard Ashton, Knt., then the Jurors say that all those premises are held of Ralph Ashton, as required by law, and they were worth nothing during the lifetime of the said Robert Holt, but at the time of his death they were, and now are worth per ann. (clear) £10. The premises in Wostenholme, Spotland, and Rachdall are held of the King, but by what service the Jurors know not, and they are worth per ann. (clear) 5s. The premises in Bamford are held of William, Earl of Derby, in free and common socage by fealty only, and are worth per ann. (clear) 6d. All the premises in Butterworth are held of the heirs of Geoffrey of Butterworth in free and common socage, viz. by fealty only, and are worth per ann. (clear) 40s.

Immediately after the death of Robert Holt, William Holt, Esq., his only son, entered into all the premises in Ashworth, and was thereof possessed, and thenceforth until 5 Aug. afore-said<sup>1</sup> took the issues and profits thereof. John Greenehalgh on 5 Aug. entered into 3 barns and 1 water-mill, and took the issues and profits thereof from that day up to the 30 Aug. last past [1624], when William Holt entered into 1 of the said barns, and took the issues and profits thereof from that time until the day of taking this Inquisition. John Greenehalgh from 30 Aug. [1624] up to the present time took the issues and profits of the other two barns. From 5 Aug. [ ] up to the day of taking this Inquisition William Holt took the issues and profits of all the premises parcel of the capital messuage and other demesne lands in Ashworth.

Richard Houghton, of Parke Hall, Esquire.

Vol. xxviii.
No. 46.
22 Dec.

So seised, in consideration of a marriage then to be had, and which long before the taking of this Inquisition was had, between William Houghton, his (Richard's) son, and Mary, one of the daughters of John Gascoigne, of Barneboe, in the county of York, Esq., a Fine was levied at Lancaster on Monday in the 5th week of Lent, 18 James [1620], between John Gascoigne, Esq., William Ingelbie, and Edward Plompton, Knts., Alexander Standish, Esq., and Thomas Gerrard, gent., plaintiffs, and Richard Houghton, deforciant, of the moiety of the manor aforesaid, and of all other the premises, by the name of the manor of Charnocke Richard, 20 messuages, 10 cottages, 1 water-mill, &c. [as above, with the addition of view of frank-pledge] to the uses expressed and declared in certain Indentures dated 7 Aug., 13 James [1615] and made between the said Richard Houghton of the one part, and John Gascoigne, Esq., William Ingilbie, and Edward Ploompton, Knts., of the other part, viz., concerning one tenement in Charnocke Richard then or late in the tenure of Roger Crouchley or his assigns, with all the hereditaments to the same belonging containing about 20 acres of land ; and 1 other tenement in Charnocke Richard then or late in the tenure of Henry Armtridginge or his assigns, containing about 16 acres of land ; and certain pastures containing about 16 acres of land ; and 26 acres of land in Walshwhittle [here specifically described], to the use of William Houghton and Mary for their lives and the life of the survivor of them, without impeachment of waste, during the life of the said William, for the jointure of the said Mary. And concerning the moiety of the manor aforesaid, and all the premises besides those limited to the use of William Houghton and Mary, and those last mentioned also after the death of the said William and Mary and the survivor of them, if Richard Houghton (named in the writ) should survive them both, to the use of Richard Houghton, for life, without impeachment of waste, and after his decease to the use of William Houghton and his heirs male by Mary ; and for default to the use of the heirs male of the body of William Houghton ; and for default to the use of John Houghton, one of the other sons of Richard Houghton, and his heirs male ; and for default to the use of Richard Houghton, son of Alexander Houghton, then deceased, another son of Richard Houghton (named in the writ), and his heirs male ; and for default to the use of George Houghton, reputed son of Richard Houghton, and his heirs male ; and, lastly, for default to the use of the right heirs of Richard Houghton for ever, as by a Transcript of the Fine and by the Indenture, shown to the Jurors, appears. By virtue whereof and by force of the Statute of Uses William Houghton and Mary were seised of the premises (limited as abovesaid for jointure for the said Mary) as of freehold for life and for the life of the survivor, with remainder as aforesaid, and Richard Houghton was seised of the moiety of the said manor and of all other the premises as of freehold for life, with remainder as aforesaid.

They being so severally and respectively seised, Mary died at Parke Hall. Afterwards, 24 Nov., 20 James [1622] Richard Houghton died at Parke Hall; Anne Bradley, wife of Thomas Bradley, is his kinswoman and heir, viz. daughter and heir of Alexander Houghton, son and heir of Richard Houghton (named in the writ), and is aged at the time of taking this Inquisition 28 years. By virtue of the Fine and conveyance aforesaid William Houghton took the issues and profits of all the premises aforesaid from the time of the death of Richard Houghton up to this day.

The moiety of the manor of Charnocke Richard and all other the premises in Charnocke Richard are held of Richard Sherburne and Edward Rigby, Esqs., by fealty and 5*s.* rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 40*s.* The lands, &c. in Lancaster are held of the King in free and common burgage and not in capite or by knight's service, and are worth per ann. (clear) 3*s.* The lands, &c. in Chorley are held of the aforesaid Richard Sherburne and Edward Rigby, Esqs., by fealty and 12*d.* rent, and are worth per ann. (clear) 2*s.* The lands, &c. in Euxton and Heskinie are held of Richard Mollineux, Knt. and Bart., in free and common socage and not in capite or by knight's service, viz. by fealty only, and are worth per ann. (clear) 3*s.* The lands, &c. in Walshwhitle are held of Edward Wrightington, Esq., in free and common socage and not by knight's service, viz. by fealty and 12*d.* yearly rent, and are worth per ann. George Birch, Gentleman.

Inquisition taken at Wigan, co. Lanc., 10 Oct., 4 James [1606], before Edward Leighe, Esq., Escheator, to enquire after the death of George Birch, gent., deceased, by the oath of John Cudworth of Wernett, gent., Robert Leighe of Westhaughton, gent., Thomas Crompton of Crompton, gent., George
Holme of Blackroode, gent., Miles Garrard of Ince, gent.,
William Mollineux of Westhaughton, gent., William Banckes
of Scholles, gent., Nicholas Turner of Blackrode, gent.,
Thomas Tarleton of Wigan, gent., Charles Leighe of Wigan, gent., William Ascrofte of the same, gent., Robert Markelande senior, of the same, gent., Robert Markeland junior, of the same, gent., Robert Barrow of the same, gent., William Pilkington of the same, gent., Robert Orrell of the same, gent., and Thomas Mollineux of Wigan Woodhowses, gent., Jurors, who say upon their oath that the said George Birch was seised in fee of and in 2 messuages or burgages, 2 barns, 2 gardens, and 2 closes of land in Manchester containing by estimation 5 acres of land, and, being so seised, the said
George Birch deceased, by the name of George Birch of Detford, co. Kent, gent., 14 June, 38 Eliz. [1596], before
Edmund Anderson, Knight, then Chief Justice of the Common Bench, acknowledged that he owed to Thomas Goodyear of Manchester, draper, now deceased, £200, to be paid to the said Thomas at the feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist then next coming. And the said George, being so seised, died 20 May, 44 Eliz. [1602], after whose death the said premises came, as by right they ought to come, to Elizabeth Brown, wife of Christopher Brown, sister and heir of the said George, by virtue of which the said Christopher Brown and Elizabeth his wife were seised of the said premises as of the right of the said Elizabeth. And the said Thomas Goodyear died at Manchester intestate, after whose death administration of his effects was granted from the Prerogative Court of York to Robert Goodyear, gent., son and heir of the said Thomas Goodyear. And afterwards the said Robert Goodyear took out a writ in the Palatine Court, reciting the recognizance of the said George Birch dated 14 June, 38 Eliz. [1596], regarding the said £200, and stating that the same had not been paid, and demanding the seizure of the body of the said George Birch and all his goods, lands, &c., and that a true value of the same might be found by a Jury. And an enquiry was held, and it was returned that the said George Birch was dead, and an Inquisition was taken at Preston in Amounderness 14 June last past, when it was found that when he made the said recognizance he was seised of the premises above named, being of the yearly value of 33s. 4d., and that he had no other goods or chattels in the county of Lancaster. And thereupon the Sheriff seized the said lands, and afterwards the said Robert Goodyear took out another writ in the said Court, whereupon Edward Fleetwood, Esq., Sheriff of the County of Lancaster, 17 July last past, granted the said premises to the said Robert Goodyear as the administrator of the said Thomas Goodyear, deceased, by virtue whereof the said Robert Goodyear was seised of the premises with reversion to the said Christopher Brown and Elizabeth his wife. And, being so seised, by an Indenture dated the last day of July last past, he conveyed the said premises to William Birch of Manchester, draper, his heirs and assigns for ever. And afterwards, 5 Aug. last past, a fine was levied at Lancaster before Sir John Seville, Knight, one of the Barons of the King's Exchequer at Westminster, and George Snigge, Knight, one other Baron of the said Exchequer, the King's Justices at Lancaster, the which fine was to the use of William Birch, his heirs and assigns.

And the Jury say that the said Elizabeth, wife of the said Christopher Brown, is sister and heir of the said George Birch, and is aged 30 years and more at the day of the taking of this Inquisition.

And that the said premises are held of Sir Nicholas Mosley, Knt., as of his manor of Manchester, by knight's service and the rent of 6s. per annum, and are worth per ann. 33s. 4d.

lands to remain to Margaret, his wife, for her life, with remainder to her heirs by the said Ralph. And in default of such heirs the one half of the said lands to his next of kin, George Proudlove, and his heirs for ever, and the other half of the said lands to his sister Ellin Goodyer and her heirs for ever; and of the said will he made the said George Proudlove and Thomas Goodyer, now deceased, the Executors, as appears by the said will shown to the Jury on the day of the taking of this Inquisition.

And the Jurors say that on 8 April, 30 Eliz. [1588], the said Ralph Proudlove died so seised of the said lands and tenements, without issue, and his goods and chattels were not sufficient to pay his debts. And, further, the said Jury say that the said Margaret, late his wife, died 20 Jan., 42 Eliz. [1599-1600]. And the said George Proudlove is next of kin and heir of the said Ralph, and is aged at the day of taking this Inquisition 21 years and upwards. And that the said Ellen Goodyer died 7 Aug., 1591, and that Robert Goodyer is her son and heir.

And the Jurors say that the said lands and tenements at the time of the death of the said Ralph Proudlove were held of John Lacy, Esq., as of his manor of Manchester, by knight's service and the rent of 2s. 10d.; and that the said lands and tenements at the time of taking this Inquisition are held of Sir Nicholas Mossley, Knt., as of his manor of Manchester, by knight's service and the rent of 2s. 10d.

Inquisition taken at Boulton in le moores, co. Lanc., 4 Sept., 9 James [1611], before Edward Rigbie, Esq., Escheator, to enquire after the death of George Hulton, late of ffarneworth in the said county, Esq., deceased, by the oath of Alexander Leaver of Chamber, gent., Richard Entwisle of ffoxhoales, gent., Adam Hoult of Lowerplace, gent., Charles Hoult of Balderston, gent., Thomas Whyteheade of Bury, gent., Richard Smethurst of Broadoacke, gent., Thomas Shoare of Shoare, gent., Abraham Breareley of Newchey, gent., James Milnes of Ladyhowse, gent., John Parke of Boulton, gent., Edward Atkinson of Balderston, gent., Adam Leaver of Great Leaver, gent., Robert Groundie of Burneden, gent., Richard Hill of Digge-yate, gent., Ralph Norres of Boulton, gent., Jurors, who say upon their oath that the said George Hulton was seised in fee of and in the manor of ffarnworth and 1 capital messuage called "the Hall of ffarnworth," and of and in 20 messuages, 10 cottages, 1 water-mill, 20 gardens, 10 orchards, 200 acres of land, 60 acres of meadow, 200 acres of pasture, 60 acres of wood, 60 acres of moss, 60 acres of heath, and 40 acres of moor, and 1 coal mine with the appurtenances in ffarnworth; and of and in the manor of Rumworth, and 3 messuages, 10 cottages, 13 gardens, 40 acres of land, 20 acres of meadow, 40 acres of pasture, and 100 acres of moor with the appurtenances in Rumworth; and of and in 2 messuages, 14 acres of land, and 16 acres of meadow in Kersley; and of and in 3 messuages, 3 gardens, 3 acres of land, 2 acres of meadow, and 6 acres of moor in Bolton in le moores; and of and in 6 acres of land, 4 acres of meadow, 8 acres of pasture, and 6 acres of wood, with the appurtenances in Great Leaver; and of and in 35s. rent in Manchester. And, being so seised, by a certain Indenture, dated 26 Feb., 35 Eliz. [1592-93], and made between Robert Hyde of Norbury, co. Chester, Esq., of the one part, and the said George Hulton of the other part, in consideration of a marriage then about to be had and solemnized between the said George Hulton and Margaret Hyde, one of the daughters of the said Robert Hyde, and for the dower of the said Margaret, of and in the said capital messuage and the demesne lands of ffarnworth, he granted to the said Robert Hyde and his heirs that he the said George Hulton and his heirs should be seised of and in the half of all the said messuages, lands, &c. in ffarnworth, to the use of the said Margaret for the term of her life (the said capital messuage called "ffarnworth" and the demesne lands there, and a tenement in the possession of Henry Dicksonne in ffarnworth excepted), and of and in all the other lands of the said George of which the said George was seised in fee, in possession or reversion, To the use of the said George and Margaret for their lives and the longest liver of them, and after their decease to the use of the heirs of the said George by the said Margaret. And in default of such to the right heirs of the said George for ever. And, further, it was by the said Indenture provided that if the said George should have any male issue by the said Margaret, and also one or more daughters, that his heir should, within 8 years after he had accomplished the age of 21 years, pay to William Davenport of Bramall, co., Chester, then Esq. and now Knt., Hamnet Hyde, Thomas Gerrarde of Garswoodde, gent., and John Potter, yeoman, or their heirs, the sum of £200, to be divided among the said daughters. And, further, it was provided that he might grant annuities of 40s. for his younger sons. And afterwards the said George married the said Margaret and had issue by her Thomas Hulton, son and heir, George Hulton and Richard Hulton, younger sons; Elizabeth Hulton, Mary Hulton, and Catherine Hulton, his daughters. And, further, the said Jurors say that the said George Hulton, being so seised of the premises aforesaid, on 22 Feb., 7 James [1609-10], at ffarnworth aforesaid, made his last will in these words:—

"In the name of God, Amen, the 22 Feb., 7 James [1609-10], I George Hulton of ffarnworth co. Lanc., Esq. Whereas I now stand indebted and my children very slenderly provided for, I hereby limit and devise all my lands &c. in Great Leaver, ffarnworth, and Kirsley co. Lanc. except such lands as are assigned for my wife's jointure during her life, to my brother in law Hamnet Hyde of Hyde co. Chester, gent., Robert Hyde his son, and Thomas Stranguishe of Stranguishe co. Lanc., Esq<sup>r</sup>. for the term of 21 years after my decease, upon trust that they shall with the profits &c. thereof pay all my just debts which my goods will not extend to pay, and to employ all the overplus of the said profits for the preferment of all my children except my eldest son, as they the said Hamnet Hyde, Robert Hyde, and Thomas Stranguishe, shall think fitting. And of this my last will I make my loving wife Margaret Hulton, the said Hamnet Hyde, Robert Hyde, and Thomas Stranguish, my Executors."

And the said George, being so seised, 19 March, 7 James [1609-10], died at ffarneworth.

And the Jurors say that the said manor of ffarneworth, the capital messuage, and other the premises there, are held of Sir Nicholas Mosley Knt., as of his manor of Manchester, in socage by fealty and the rent of 4s. 6d., and are worth per ann., beyond reprints, 40s. And that the manor of Rumworth and the premises there are held of the said Sir Nicholas Mosley, Knt., as of his manor of Manchester aforesaid, by knight's service, viz. by the 3rd part of a knight's fee and the rent of 4s. 6d., and are worth per ann. 10s. And that the lands, &c. in Kirsley are held of the said Sir Nicholas Mosley in socage, and are worth 6s. 8d. per ann. And that the messuages, &c. in Bolton are held of William, Earl Darbie, Richard Shirburne, Esq., Raphe Asheton, Esq., and Jane Aynesworth, widow, as of their manor of Bolton, in socage by fealty and the rent of [blank], and are worth per ann. 3s. 4d. And that the premises in Leaver are held of Sir Richard Assheton, Knt., by knight's service, viz. by the 100th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann. 2s.

And, further, the said Jurors say that the said Thomas Hulton is son and next heir to the said George, and is of the age of 9 years 11 months and [blank] days on the day of the taking of this Inquisition.

(Signed) Ed. Rigbie.
Escaetor.
